BARE NATION-WIDE BOND THEFTS; 26 ARE INDICTED

MINNEAPOLIS, October 20.—(By the Associated Press)—Twenty-six persons living here, including bankers and bond salesmen and three or four newspaper men have been indicted by the Federal Grand Jury charged with implication in nationwide bond thefts, Lafayette French, United States District Attorney, announced today.

The indictments were voted late yesterday by a special grand jury and service of warrants began today. It is charged nearly $500,000 in stolen bonds were disposed of in Minneapolis. The bonds are alleged to have been stolen in the $2,500,000 mail robbery in New York, October 24, 1921, and in the $1,500,000 theft in Chicago, January 18, 1922.

The woman is among the persons named in the indictments, which charge "conspiracy in violation of the postal code."

The first persons arrested were Mr. and Mrs. Stanley McCormick. He is vice president and treasurer of the United States and Company, a bond house and now is on trial on a charge of embezzlement.

WHOLESALE CONFESSIONS IN POSTAL ROBBERY

COUNCIL BLUFFS, Iowa, Oct. 20.—(By The Associated Press)—Six of the 41 postal clerks suspended here yesterday for alleged pilfering of the mails appeared before United States Commissioner W. A. Byers early today, entered pleas of guilty and were bound over to the federal grand jury.

COUNCIL BLUFFS, Iowa, Oct. 20.—(By The Associated Press)—Postal inspectors believe that with the arraignment today of a number of the 41 suspended postal clerks and substitutes on charges of thefts from United States mail the inside story of the second big mail robbery in Council Bluffs within two years would be learned. Authorities announced last night that 25 of the suspended men had admitted thefts of articles from "broken" packages, that eight others had confessed to minor thefts and that before the investigation is concluded a total of fifty of the ninety men employed in the Union transfer terminal possibly would be implicated.

Investigations followed the arrest and conviction last August of Guy Hampton, an employee, who is serving a two year sentence for thefts of money from letters.

Council Bluffs was the scene on November 13, 1920, of a $3,500,000 mail robbery for which eight persons were convicted.

SAYS "TWINS" WERE ONLY "DOLLS"

The above is a picture of Mrs. McNally, principal in the "doll-twin" mystery at Hammond, Ind. Mrs. McNally denies having twins. Mrs. Griffith, a nurse, says she saw them, and McNally, the husband, says they certainly were not china dolls. Mrs. McNally says she arranged "the box," as she calls it, to satisfy her former husband's desire for children.

SCENT PLOT IN WRECK, 3 KILLED AND 7 HURT

WILLIAMSPORT, Ind., Oct. 20.—(By The Associated Press)—Belief was expressed by authorities today that a rail was removed to wreck Wabash eastbound passenger train number 2, near here last night. The wreck killed three persons, injured seven others and caused the destruction of several coaches by fire.

The dead: Engineer Charles L. Schmugge, Decatur, Ill.; H. W. Martin, express messenger, Detroit; R. A. Smith, baggage man, Detroit.

The injured: W. W. Field, mail clerk, Huntington, Ind., left leg cut; Harry Smith, Maumee, Ohio, passenger, cuts on hand and leg; Emerson Crayton, St. Louis, two ribs fractured and legs cut; G. O. Dale, Ft. Wayne, Ind., badly bruised; George Lloyd, St. Louis, bruised; Hobart Durrett, Springfield, Tenn., head injured.

Conductor Frank W. Hulburt of Detroit said the rail was not removed from its place but the spikes had been loosened. Some one who knew the operation of railway signals must have tampered with the rail according to Hulburt as the wiring was left in its place so as not to disturb the signals.

Passengers on board the train also reported after looking at the rail, that they believed someone had removed the spikes.

Business Places And Homes Pillaged When Town Is Plunged Into Darkness

VLADIVOSTOK, October 20.—(By the Associated Press)—American and British marines were landed here today to guard the consulates of the two nations.

TOKIO, October 20.—(By the Associated Press)—Terror reigns in Vladivostok as the completion of Japanese evacuation approaches, according to dispatches received here today.

Last night the city was plunged in darkness by the failure of the lighting plant. While guards roamed the city in the darkness, pillaging business houses and residences and holding up of pedestrians went on.

On the outskirts of the town Japanese troops and red forces of the advancing far eastern Republic army are reported to have clashed.

The original plan of the Japanese was to turn over the administration of Vladivostok to the municipal government and to hold the reds outside the neutral zone until evacuation was complete. Then the municipal authorities refused to take possession of the war munitions left behind by the Japanese and the latter sought to open negotiations with the reds to give the Republic troops control and thus avoid an interim of disorder. The China commanders refused to negotiate and the clash between the Japanese and reds is reported to have followed.

TOKIO, October 20.—(By the Associated Press)—Japanese troops remaining in Vladivostok will withdraw in a body October 26, the war office announced today. Meanwhile the Japanese commander is endeavoring to arrange with the victorious "red" army of the China government to take over the city peacefully.

The "Reds" recent being asked to negotiate regarding the movement of Russian soldiers on Russian soil, but at last reports no fighting had occurred between them and the departing Japanese troops.

Large number of foreigners are leaving Vladivostok by every route.

VLADIVOSTOK, October 20.—(By the Associated Press)—The legislative assembly of the Primorje government, refusing to accept responsibility for the protection of foreigners, General Dietrich has ordered all civilians to leave Vladivostok for China.

Ships are being commandeered for the conveyance of the evacuating inhabitants. The Japanese commander here has ordered his headquarters aboard a transport.

Recent dispatches received via Tokyo and Honolulu have indicated that the capture of Vladivostok by the soviet army of the far eastern Republic was imminent.

Pajamerino Party Ends In A Riot

LOS ANGELES, October 20.—(By the Associated Press)—More than a score of students at the southern branch of the University of California, were injured, one possibly fatally, and at least three seriously, early today when gathered for a "pajamerino" party in celebration of a football game tomorrow, they were attacked by 500 students of a rival university.

They fought with "gasoline bombs," bags saturated and bottles filled with gasoline, clubs, bats, bricks, torches and other weapons available. A riot call brought 200 policemen before the fracas could be quelled. The attacking party succeeded in firing a shot which had been gathered for the party and the glow caused a fire alarm to be turned in. Several students lay unconscious on the campus when the police ambulances arrived. Southern branch students said they were sure the attacking force was from Occidental College tomorrow's opponents on the gridiron.

Rector's Wife, Mrs. Mills Quarreled

NEW BRUNSWICK, N. J., Oct. 20.—(By The Associated Press)—Authorities investigating the Hall-Mills murder mystery today were checking up details of new information which they said dovetailed with facts previously obtained and points to a definite solution of the case which has baffled officials and detectives of Middlesex and Somerset counties for more than a month.

They were said to be weighing carefully a story to the effect that Mrs. Frances N. Hall, widow of the Rev. Edward Wheeler Hall, and Mrs. Eleanor Reinhardt Mills, who was murdered with the clergyman, quarreled shortly before the Halls left New Brunswick for a vacation last summer and that feeling was pronounced after the vacationists returned.

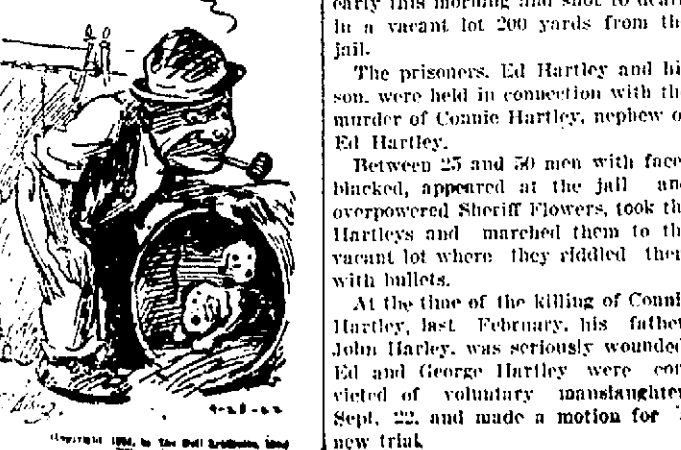

Information of the quarrel was given out by Miss Florence North, woman attorney for Charlotte Mills, daughter of the slain choir leader. Miss North told reporters that a scene had taken place between Mrs. Mills and the rector's wife at a camp maintained by the church at Point Pleasant on the Jersey coast last summer. Reference was made to the quarrel in a letter written by Dr. Hall to Mrs. Mills, she said.

Bryan Says Wets Want To Turn Nation Over To Lawlessness

PHOENIA, ILL., October 20.—(By the Associated Press)—William Jennings Bryan in a speech here last night said the liquor interests are fighting to repeal the 18th amendment and the campaign for the sale of beer and light wines, was a camouflage. "The real intent of the liquor interests," he said, "is to turn the nation over to lawlessness."

Child Hoax Mania Of Woman In Girlhood

HAMMOND, IND., October 20.—(By The Associated Press)—Mrs. Hazel McNally began the third day of her preliminary hearing on a charge of infanticide today somewhat sobered after the testimony yesterday of a half dozen state witnesses, including that of Frank McNally, her husband and accuser, that the twins which she says were dolls, really were born and mysteriously were done away with. At the first day of her hearing Mrs. McNally laughed and smiled at testimony and witty sallies of the attorneys.

On the other hand, two Chicago women who knew Mrs. McNally as a child today were ready to testify that the maternity hoax with which Mrs. McNally said she deceived her friends and relatives, was, if true, a repetition of a similar deception she worked when she was 16 years old.

Mrs. McNally as a child, possessed a mania for "playing mother," according to Mrs. G. A. Kahue, whose daughter Rhea, was a playmate of Hazel. At 16 the mania became so pronounced that the girl actually fooled her closest friends, Mrs. Kahue said, and made them believe she was to become a mother, and later appeared with "twins" which at length turned out to be only dolls.

Another witness waiting to tell of Mrs. McNally's pronounced "mother instinct," was Mrs. G. Azzeto, a girlhood chum, whose story was similar to Mrs. Kahue's.

WASHINGTON, October 20.—(By the Associated Press)—Return to the government of $454,188 in connection with war contracts was asked in a suit filed at the direction of Attorney General Daugherty in the federal courts at Cleveland, Ohio, today against the Cleveland Brass and Copper Mills Inc., and their sureties.

New Premier Making Progress In Formation Of New Cabinet

LONDON, October 20.—(By the Associated Press)—Andrew Bonar Law appeared to be making rapid progress today in forming a cabinet to replace the fallen coalition government.

This was evidenced by the announcement that Marquis Curzon and the Earl of Derby, both men of influence and experienced cabinet ministers, have agreed to serve under him in any capacity.

Mr. Bonar Law cannot officially announce the formation of his ministry until he is elected head of the Unionist party to succeed Austen Chamberlain, but it is generally conceded that this election will be only a formality. Although the split in the Unionist ranks has deprived him of such cabinet material as Mr. Chamberlain, Lord Birkenhead the Earl of Halifax and some lesser lights, political experts believe, Mr. Bonar Law will find plenty of timber among the younger members of the party who have shown promise in the political field and are marked for advancement at a favorable moment.

The premier-designate was busy seeking out eligibles at an early hour today. His secretary declared he is in good health again and ready to "huckle to" the work which lays before him. Certainly he is giving every evidence of his old intense energy, but whether he is strong enough to stand the long hard strain of office is problematical.

LONDON, October 20.—(By the Associated Press)—The conservative party organizers were busy today arranging the meeting at which a leader will be elected to succeed Austen Chamberlain. It is understood that the Carlton Club, which yesterday saw the deposition of the old leader, will be the scene of the choice of his successor.

The election of Andrew Bonar Law is a foregone conclusion and as soon as the party's vote has been registered he will be in a position to begin formation of a cabinet to succeed the resigned Lloyd George ministry.

It is believed in conservative quarters that the cabinet will be completed before the end of next week. This prediction ignores dark hints from some coalition sources of the difficulties which Bonar Law may perhaps encounter. Prominence is given to a story that Lloyd George proposes to form a center party with Mr. Chamberlain and the leading coalition unionists.

Texas Man Heads Legion

NEW ORLEANS, October 20.—(By the Associated Press)—Alvin M. Owsley, of Texas, was elected national commander of the American Legion for the next year by the annual convention of the veterans here today, succeeding Harford MacNider, of Iowa.

Five national vice-commanders were elected as follows: Edward J. Barrett, Sheboygan, Wis.; Robert S. Blood, Concord, N. H.; Charles P. Plumer, Casper, Wyo.; Earl Cooke, Mason, Ga.; Watson B. Miller, Washington, D. C.

Father William R. O'Connor, of Ohio, was elected national chaplain by a vote of 714 to 374 over the Rev. Ezra Clemmons, of Minnesota, who at once moved that the vote be unanimous. After deliberation by Father O'Connor, Commander MacNider declared the fourth national convention adjourned.

Mr. Owsley was introduced by Commander MacNider and he thanked the convention.

"Please accept my heartfelt gratitude," he said, "for the greatest honor that could come to one who served in the world war.

"We pledged to America in the world war that we were her defenders. We must now pledge even greater service.

"There are four great principles on which we rest: Hospitalization, rehabilitation, adjusted compensation and Americanization.

"I pledge the best energies of my manhood and my sacred honor."

Mr. Owsley when barely 30, had gained distinction as a soldier and statesman in Texas. He resigned a position as district attorney at the outbreak of the war to attend the first training camp opened to volunteers and was assigned a major of infantry in the 36th division. In this capacity he recruited his own battalion and a large part of the division in Northern Texas.

Chairman McGuire, of the resolutions committee, offered a resolution which was carried directing the Legion Publishing Company to print separately its articles against war profiteers entitled "The Looting of a Nation, Who Got the Money?" and "What Insofar as possible, the pamphlet be placed on sale at every newspaper and book store in this country."

Department Commander Bothman, of Ohio, presented the legion plan for a memorial to former Commander Galbreth to be erected at Cincinnati.

Bar Film Peacock Alley In Paris

PARIS, October 20.—(By the Associated Press)—The French courts have ordered the American film "Peacock Alley" taken off the program of the boulevard picture house which has been presenting it, and the film has been placed under sequestration.

This action was taken at instance of Cleo DeMere, who twenty years ago was a world celebrity as a dancer. She brought suit to restrain the showing of the film on the ground that purported to depict her life and adventures.

Probe Charge Of Hazing

ADA, O., October 20.—(By the Associated Press)—School authorities at Ohio Northern University were investigating charges today that a youth by the name of Heffner, whose home is said to be in Youngstown, was taken out by students and hanged as the result of alleged publication in several Ohio newspapers of stories derogatory to the Ohio Northern football team and its prospects.

Football enthusiasm is high at Ohio Northern this year and when the alleged derogatory stories were published, a number of students are reported to have taken young Heffner to a farm several miles south of Ada, a nearby village, tied him to a tree, and clipped part of his hair. According to reports, he was found the next morning by a farmer and taken back to Ada.

Heffner is a freshman in the law school. He refused to disclose the identity of the men in the hair-cutting party.

Leaps From Plane To Safety In Parachute

DAYTON, O., October 20.—(By the Associated Press)—Leaping from his Leaning monoplane in a parachute when the plane began to wobble at a height of 2,000 feet above the ground over North Dayton today, Lieutenant Harold K. Harris, chief of the flying section of McCook field, escaped death while his plane crashed to earth.

The plane, landing in the rear yard of a home in that part of the city, was reduced to a mass of twisted wreckage. Lieutenant Harris came to earth several blocks away in a grape arbor.

He was traveling at high speed in the pursuit model when it got beyond control. Lieutenant Harris apparently realized that a fall was certain before he took the parachute. Harris won the commercial plane event in the Pulitzer races in Detroit last week, flying the "honeymoon express" plane.

Technical data officials at McCook field said, show that Lieutenant Harris' escape is the first time an air pilot has ever actually saved himself by use of a parachute.

A mail plane flyer leaped in a parachute over Chicago several years ago, but the necessity of leaving the plane that time was questioned by air service officials.

Second Presbyterian Organizes Brotherhood; Members Hear Two Splendid Addresses

Organization of A Brotherhood at Second Presbyterian church was effected Thursday evening under the most auspicious circumstances, the movement being given impetus by two gifted speakers, Dr. D. H. Jones, prominent and versatile pastor of Evanston, Ill., and Dr. George P. Horst, former pastor of the church, and one of the most capable and beloved ministers that has occupied the Second Presbyterian pulpit.

Sounding the keynote of The Brotherhood movement made by these two interesting speakers, "More Christian living in every day life and renewed activities in behalf of the church, both in a religious and social way," sent the new organization on its way enthused and inspired, determined to make itself felt not only as a source of influence in the church but in the community as well. Over two hundred men present pledged their loyal support to the Brotherhood.

Inauguration of The Brotherhood movement was only one of the many features of a most enjoyable evening in the basement of the Second church. Opened with a most delectable banquet, prepared and faultlessly served by the ladies of the church, the fore part of the evening was spent by the seven hundred men present in singing patriotic songs led by John Lloyd. A vocal solo by Lee Rogers made such a decided hit that he was called upon to respond with an encore. Mr. Rogers, a most gifted singer, later in the evening also rendered another pleasing number.

As Dr. D. H. Jones, well known in this section of the state, having occupied pulpits in Presbyterian churches at Wellston and Jackson, was introduced those present instinctively knew they were to receive an oratorical treat. Dr. Jones prefaced his talk with anecdotes that kept his hearers in ripples of laughter. His quaint Welsh dialect spiced the telling of his stories. His humble personality won its way immediately to the hearts of the men and the message he so fervently conveyed found a welcome spot through his very earnestness and magnetism.

Describing the life in Wales, Dr. Jones pointed out the fact that very few Welshmen were successful in commerce, finance or business but attained their exaltation in art, song, poetry and brought their name to the heights of glory through excellence in religious teachings and living. The ambition of every mother and father in Wales is to have one of their sons engaged in the work of expounding the teachings of Jesus Christ, said Dr. Jones.

Turning to the strife and tribulations of the present day, Dr. Jones emphasized the fact that there was not enough stress laid on the importance of Christianity in the life of the nation.

"Christianity appears to have failed,"

Dr. Jones said. It has not brought that golden age so many were led to believe it would bring. Why? It has not been given a chance. There has been too much of a tendency to assail and criticize before the teachings have had an opportunity to demonstrate their effectiveness. The church itself has unfortunately been divided on many things. But a new era is dawning. Many things have been tried to cure the world's ailments. Force has been tried and failed. An attempt has been made to legislate the world into righteousness and good living. That has also failed. Certain kinds of education have also failed. But Christianity has never been tried. Give it an opportunity and there will be a different result. Make the church a symbol of brotherly love, the teaching of Christ and the world will live in a different atmosphere. This in substance was Dr. Jones' message to the Second Presbyterian men.

Rev. George P. Horst, former pastor of the church a visitor in the city and a guest of the evening, was noticeably affected by the profound oration accorded him when called upon by Chairman Vaughn Shiers to address the men. Dr. Horst made an eloquent plea for support of the church. He spoke of his experiences since he had left Portsmouth, praising the Second church for the faithfulness and sincere Christianity of its members. He pleaded for the everyday support of the pastor, Rev. Hugh I. Evans, emphasizing the fact that every member of the church should be ready to sacrifice their own personal pleasure and convenience when called upon to do something for the church. He scored the Christian who spent much on personal pleasure and then went to church on Sunday dropped a dime in the collection plate and felt as though he had given a good account of his stewardship to God. The church cannot thrive without the support of its members, he said.

Referring to "he" and "she" churches, Dr. Horst asked that Portsmouth produce the first "he" church in the state of Ohio. He explained that there was not a church in the state that had more men members than women members. Organization of such a brotherhood as was organized last night paves the way for that attainment, he said.

Dr. Horst's message went straight to the hearts of his hearers. They were perceptibly touched by his appeal for more Christian living and the close of his address brought the same prolonged ovation he received when he began. Truly it was an evening of delightful pleasure to have two such talented men as Dr. Jones and Dr. Horst bare their hearts and souls on their life's work to such an appreciative audience.

Plans for the organization of the brotherhood were laid before the men of the church by the pastor, Rev. Hugh I. Evans. It is planned, he stated, to make every one of the 500 men, either members or attending the church, a member of the brotherhood. The fundamental principles of the brotherhood, he explained, were advancement of the social side of the church and enlistment of more men in the actual work of maintaining and promoting the teachings of Jesus Christ.

He outlined a plan whereby meetings of the brotherhood would be held in January, February and March when a banquet will be served and those who attend will hear the finest speakers obtainable. Augmenting this program a banquet will be held some time in the spring when the ladies of the church will be entertained. The tentative date for the December meeting is December 7.

Pledges were secured from every man present to make a special effort to be present and bring another man if possible to a mass meeting of the men of the church to be held on the evening of November 12. Rev. Hugh I. Evans, pastor will address the meeting. The ladies of the church are to be permitted to occupy the balcony.

Monthly meetings of the brotherhood are to be in charge of groups captained by the men who planned and so successfully directed the brotherhood meeting last night.

The officers elected and the groups appointed follow:

President—Grant Williams.

Don't Miss The Latest Zane Grey Picture "When Romance Rides" Taken From His Popular Novel "Wildfire" and Showing At The Eastland Theatre Tonight And Tomorrow.

Action drama de luxe may be found at the Eastland Theatre this week, where Benjamin B. Hampton's latest photoplay "When Romance Rides," released by Goldwyn, is being shown. The picture was suggested by the Zane Grey novel, "Wildfire," which has had millions of readers.

"When Romance Rides" has as its featured players, Claire Adams and Carl Guntworf, who have won many admirers through their sterling dramatic work in other Hampton successes.

Dog and horse lovers will find much to please them in "When Romance Rides" for a clever Belgian police dog has an important canine part, while almost every type of horse has a part in the picture, from the smallest horse in the world, who is not a pony but in reality a dwarf stallion, to the wild horse, Wildfire, who wins the famous race.

"When Romance Rides" offers absorbing entertainment to photoplay patrons, with not an incident that could offend the most fastidious.

McHenry Undergoes Operation; May Recover

CINCINNATI, Oct. 20.—Austin McHenry, 54, outfielder of the St. Louis National League, was operated upon at a hospital here Thursday for removal of the brain. Dr. George H. H. who performed the operation, said part of the tumor was removed, but on account of its location it was impossible to remove all of it. He said he hoped McHenry would thoroughly recover, but that it was too early to make a definite prediction. McHenry, who lives near Portsmouth, Ohio, came to Cincinnati several days ago to undergo the operation.

McHenry's countless friends sincerely hope the great National League outfielder will recover completely from his operation and be permitted to round out what looks to be a wonderful career on the diamond.

French Press Looks On Fall Of Lloyd George As Victory For France

PARIS, October 20.—(By the Associated Press)—The dominating note in the French press comment on the fall of the Lloyd George cabinet in England is that the change cannot fail to make negotiations for the settlement of Europe's problems easier. To the majority of the papers it looked upon as a victory for France.

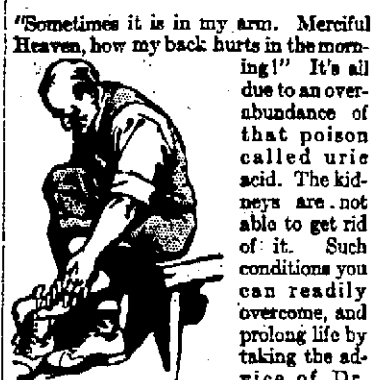

André Tardieu, writing in the Echo de Paris, however, advises care in passing judgment. "It will be the vogue of the moment, no doubt, to say that the departure of Lloyd George is a success for France," he says, "but prudent people will take time to judge."

L'Homme Libre, says France's British relations had reached an acute and painful point. With another than Lloyd George there cannot fail to be an improvement, with loyal effort and after frank explanations. Le Journal warns the French people against counting upon a complete change in the British policy. "The problems that divide men remain," it says.

LeMatin expresses in vivid terms the hope that France never again will see Lloyd George. It says: "He leaves the British empire dislocated, scattered and disintegrated. He leaves Europe disintegrated, torn and disintegrated."

"Gee-Whiz! How it Hurts—
—The Pain in My Foot!"

"Sometimes it is in my arm. Merciful Heaven, how my back hurts in the morning!" It's all due to an overabundance of that poison called uric acid. The kidneys are not able to get rid of it. Such conditions you can readily overcome, and prolong life by taking the advice of Dr. Pierce, which is "Keep the kidneys in good order." "Avoid too much meat, alcohol or tea. Drink plenty of pure water, preferably hot water, before meals, and drive the uric acid out of the system by taking 'Auric.'" This can be obtained at almost any drug store.

Send a bottle of water to the chemist at Dr. Pierce's Invalids' Hotel, Buffalo, N. Y., and you will receive free medical advice as to whether the kidneys are affected. When your kidneys get sluggish and clog, you suffer from backache, sick-headache, dizzy spells, or twinges and pains of lumbago, rheumatism or gout; or sleep is disturbed two or three times a night, take heed, before too late. Get Auric (anti-uric-acid), for it will put new life into your kidneys and your entire system. Ask your nearest druggist for it or send Dr. Pierce ten cents for trial package.

Dr. Jackson To Teach Trinity Men Sunday

Prof. Appel, teacher of the Men's Bible Class at Trinity M. E. Sunday School has invited Dr. J. C. Jackson, the local divine and prominent Bible scholar, to occupy the teacher's rostrum Sunday morning. Inasmuch as the lesson is concerning the temptations of Jesus, which also brings up the subject of the controversial "personal Devil," it is easy to see that the Trinity Men's Class, which has the reputation of being seekers after truth more than tradition, when it comes to Bible study, will revel in the uncolored interpretations which Dr. Jackson is sure to give. The officers of the class are delighted over being able to secure Dr. Jackson for this occasion and they are broadcasting an invitation to all men in the community who can to avail themselves of this opportunity to hear this noted Bible scholar's elucidation of the troublesome passages covered by the temptation episode. The class meets at Trinity at 9 o'clock Sunday morning and all men are invited.

No more Rheumatism
Suffering has gone from your face, mother!

S. S. S. is the Great Builder of Red Blood-Cells and Rheumatism Must Go! Just Try It!
"Rheumatism? Me? No, indeed, it's all gone, every bit of it! I feel like a new man, and I feel like a new man for the first time in years. I feel a wonderful glow again in the free motion I used to have when my days were younger. I look at my hands and think of the twinges and swellings they used to have. I bend my back to the floor. I haven't been able to do that in many years. I can thank S. S. S. for it all. To me it was a rising sun of joy and liberty. Brothers and sisters in misery, do not close your eyes and think that health, free motion and strength are gone from you forever! It is not so. It is here and now for all of you. S. S. S. is waiting to help you. There is a reason why S. S. S. will help you. When you increase the number of your red-blood cells, the entire system undergoes a tremendous change. Everything depends on blood-strength. Blood which is minus sufficient red-cells leads to a long list of troubles. Rheumatism is one of them. S. S. S. is the great blood-cleanser, blood-builder, system-strengthening, nerve-invigorator. It stops skin eruptions, too, pimples, blackheads, acne, boils, eczema. It builds up run-down, tired men and women, beautifies complexion, makes the flesh firm. Start S. S. S. today. It is sold at all drug stores in two sizes. The larger size bottle is the more economical.

DEBT FUNDING DELAY BY BRITISH UPSET

WASHINGTON, October 20.—(By the Associated Press)—Developments in the British political situation following the fall of the Lloyd George Government continued to hold close attention in both governmental and diplomatic circles here today. Outside of the immediate effect already felt in Washington of the postponement of the coming to this country of the British debt commission, however, the possibility of any further result as concerning the relations of the two governments, it was said, was to be gauged only in the light of developments and the success of preliminary designations of Bonar Law's efforts to form a new cabinet.

Although it appeared doubtful to officials today when the political situation in London would be sufficiently clarified to permit the sending of a British commission to this country to discuss the problem of refunding that country's war debt to the United States, there was little doubt that the negotiations ultimately would be carried out practically on the basis already mapped out.

New Type Of Semi-Dirigible For Army

HAMPTON ROADS, VA., October 20.—(By the Associated Press)—Election of officers and inspection of new aircraft construction for the army and navy occupied the meeting of the national advisory committee on aeronautics yesterday at Langley Field. Dr. Charles D. Walcott, was re-elected chairman of the committee.

Members of the committee yesterday made a study of the new type of semi-dirigible under construction for the army air service and also inspected the Z-1, the giant balloon recently built for the naval service.

Ohioan Admits He Is Married To 40 Women

DAYTON, O., Oct. 20.—William L. Jones, 56, home at large, today admitted to the police, they declared, that he is married to 40 women, none of whom are dead or divorced from him as far as he knows. Jones began his matrimonial career in 1890 after serving as a minister for several years, and continued until a short time ago, when he acquired his 40th wife in Chicago.

Jones was arrested for attempting to pass a $200 check which a Cleveland bank refused to honor, after giving the proprietor of a local moving picture theatre another check for $1000 in payment for the theatre. Jones married nine women between 1890 and 1903, he says, and lived with one woman from 1903 to 1917 because she had "plenty of money." This gave out in 1917 and he started out again marrying two or three a year until 1921, when he added 10 to his list.

15 Wives In Ten Months
During the first ten months of this year he had taken on 15 additional wives, he told the police.

Nine women were married in Chicago, four elsewhere in Illinois, four each in Pennsylvania and New York, six each in Ohio and Michigan, two each in Indiana and Tennessee and one each in Missouri, Kansas and Wisconsin, he asserted. He was born in Oxford, Pa., and served sentence in prison for bigamy, he told the police.

Marriages He Claims
Jones gave the police the following list of wives and the year of his marriage to them:

Mary Cain, London, O., 1890; Cora Richley, Hogan, Mich., 1891; Sula Winburn, Battle Creek, Mich., 1894; Della Cortley, Newark, (No state given) 1895; Lovina Bindley, Baltimore, Indiana, 1897; Edith Wones, Bloomington, Ill., 1900; Lizzie Hogue, Memphis, Tenn., 1901; Leona Stratton, Mason City, Ill., 1902; Laura Lett, Chillicothe, O., 1903; Optree Looney, Paris, Tenn., 1917; Florence Carter, Monsier, Pa., 1918; Garnet Turner, Pittsburgh, Pa., 1918; Gertrude Davis, Pittsburgh, Pa., 1918; Alta Rose, Steubenville, O., 1920; Blanche Vanhook, Columbus, O., 1920; Mamie Morton, Chicago, 1921; Elizabeth Collins, Chicago, 1921; Tillie Hecktor, Chicago, 1921; Edith Lawson, Greenville, Pa., 1921; Cora Bradley, St. Joseph, Mich., 1921; May Bell, Wrentham, Mich., 1921; Grace Grant, Chicago, 1921; Lucille Binge, Chicago, 1921; Linnie Larson, St. Louis, 1921; Esther Hott, Wichita, Kansas, 1922; Anie Wilson, Marion, Ind., 1922; Eva Peoples, Mammoth, Ill., 1922; Virginia Riley, Chicago, 1922; Florence Henderson, Detroit, 1922; Nancy Jones, Monroe, Mich., 1922; Florence Steel, Joliet, Ill., 1922; Lenore Mills, Chicago, 1922; Helen Brooks, Cleveland, O., 1922; Florence Johnson, Buffalo, N. Y., 1922; Caroline Rose, Rochester, N. Y., 1922; Evelyn Jones Schneckardt, N. Y., 1922; Arline Arnold, New York City, 1922; Luella Staples, Madison, Wis., 1922; Josephine Taylor, Chicago, 1922.

Jones will be charged with issuing a fraudulent check, and if authorities in other cities demand his return on bigamy charges, he probably will be turned over to them.

MEXICO CITY, Oct. 20.—Elmer D. Over, formerly assistant secretary of the United States Treasury, and who in the past has carried messages between President Harding and President Obregon was expected to arrive here today.

Rumors of fresh movements looking toward recognition of Mexico by the American government were started when it was learned that Mr. Over had made reservations at a local hotel.

George T. Summerlin, the American charge d'affaires, said he knew nothing about Mr. Over's visit to Mexico.

Officials Refuse to Comment

WASHINGTON, Oct. 20.—Rumors in Mexico City of impending developments as to recognition of the Mexican government by the United States, inspired by the visit to the Mexican capital by Elmer Over, found officials unwilling to comment further than to say that the American policy as to recognition had been repeatedly made known officially and unofficially and that nothing had as yet occurred in Mexico to make recognition a possibility under that policy.

OHIO W. C. T. U. ELECTIONS OFFICERS

Morning Papers Of British Press Praise Overthrow Of Coalition Government

LONDON, October 20.—(By the Associated Press)—The majority of London's morning newspapers being anti-coalition, the fall of the Lloyd George ministry is mostly welcomed by them today as ridding the country of a government whose policies they have so long condemned. The Times believes the effect will everywhere be beneficial. It declares the country wants "to return to the normal ways of life and to feel that its welfare is in the hands of men of sound sense, less anxious to shine as individuals than to merit confidence as faithful wardens of the public good."

"The coalition is dead and gone, unwept and unsworn," says the Daily News.

The West Minister Gazette comments: "The coalition has been a thorough imposture. We look to the

A woman in Lynn, Mass., was sleeping herbs on her kitchen stove according to a receipt of her own, to furnish medicine for the women of the neighborhood. Today, a stone's throw from the little house where she lived, there is a four-story laboratory, making the same medicine for the women of the world. During the last year almost 500 tons of carefully selected herbs were used in the manufacture of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Dear Dolly—Please publish in the paper the names of the property owners, who have signed the petition for asphalt, and are willing to pay the increased cost of asphalt over brick paving. I am a business man and very much interested in the matter.

TIMES READER.
It would take up too much space to print the names, but they are on file in the office of City Auditor Earl Chandler, and he would be very glad to have anyone interested look them over. The names to the last petition may be seen at the office of Charles Herr, on Gallia street, or by calling on Mayor William N. Gableman.

Dear Dolly—We are three Kentucky girls, 18 years of age, and we want you to give us some advice. Dolly, we have never gone with the boys, yet and we want you to tell us if we are old enough. We know a very nice boy here in Portsmouth, and he said he would get two more nice boys and then we would all have a nice fellow that would show us a good time. What do you think about this arrangement?

KENTUCKY BELLES.
It sounds all right, but whether it would turn out all right, depends upon the kind of girls you are, and what kind of boys your friend would get for you. If you have homes here, and can entertain your friends there, I see no reason why you should not have callers occasionally. However, if you are just boarding, you will probably have to entertain them on the street corners, in the dance halls, the picture shows, or in joy-riding. This is where the danger comes in, and I would advise you to be careful, and not lose your self-respect in quest of a good time. Don't go any place that you will be assumed to be seen, or do anything that you would be ashamed to have your mother see you do, and you will get along all right.

Dear Dolly—I am in love with a man and he said he loved me but I got a letter from him the other day and he said he wasn't coming to see me any more. Dolly, I am broken

SOCIETY

WANTED—Young lady with college education to be society editor on the Morning Sun. Address John Lloyd, care Morning Sun.

The Seniors of P. H. S. are making plans for the annual "F. A. F." a big Halloween Carnival, which will be given on the evening of Friday, October 27.

There will be all kinds of strange attractions appropriately arranged for this event, to be held during this weird and mysterious season of the declining year when pranks and spooks lurk in every dark corner throughout the land. The entrance fee will be one thin dime which must be placed in the hand of the venerable custodian at the door before any student will be allowed to gain admittance into the occult recesses of gymnasium chamber which on this night will be the lair of every ghostly phantom hereabouts, which rides by the eerie light of opalescent harvest moon through the chilly October night.

Mrs. Stephen Copas of 1122 Lawson street invites the children of the First Baptist church to her home Saturday afternoon at two o'clock, for the regular missionary meeting. Her daughter, Miss Genevieve, and son Fred will be hostess and host. The lesson from the study book, "The Man With a Million Bibles," will be taught by Mrs. Frank Pusing. Miss Edith Riekey and Miss Ullila Woods will conduct the scripture drill.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred B. Winter of 720 Sixth street recently entertained at dinner Prof. and Mrs. Elmer Ende, Miss Dorothy Kinsey and Mr. Clyde Knost.

A delicious chicken supper will be one of the attractive features of the bazaar to be given by the Ladies Aid Society of All Saints' church on November 7th and 8th. The supper will be served on the opening night.

The ladies are working on many fancy articles suitable for Christmas gifts, which will be placed on sale at the bazaar.

Miss Helen Walden welcomed the members of the J. G. C. Club to her home on Mound street last evening for their regular meeting. Needlework, music and social chat formed the diversions of the evening and later refreshments of brick ice cream and waffles were served. Those present included the Misses Bess Coker, Minnie Frank, Inez Starcher, Edith Mitchell, Betty Vaughn and the hostess.

The next meeting will be with Mrs. Earl Munger at her home in the Donaldson Apartments, Sixth and Offshore streets.

Miss Margaret Bahrert will entertain the members of the Kedros Card Club tomorrow afternoon at her home, 1825 Franklin avenue.

Mrs. Louis Schoettel and daughter, Mrs. Howard Gehres, left this afternoon for Washington, D. C., where they will visit Mrs. Francis Dawson.

Mrs. Roy Drather and Mrs. E. C. Goetz are leaving tomorrow for Long Beach, Calif., to be gone until after the holidays.

Members of the Ladies Aid Society of the South Webster M. E. Church enjoyed their annual "indoor" picnic Wednesday at the attractive home of Mrs. W. E. Tripp, 1138 Second street. At noon an appetizing four course dinner was served, and the afternoon was devoted to business and a general good time.

Those enjoying the affair included: Rev. and Mrs. Hall, Mrs. Lewis Boyer, Mrs. Ella Kuhnner, Mrs. C. C. Potts, Mrs. J. F. Gaffner, Mrs. E. W. Bauer, Mrs. A. G. Stevens and son Arthur, of South Webster; Mrs. Josephine Barber, Columbus; Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Nichols, of Chillicothe; Mrs. W. E. Tripp, Mrs. S. A. Moore, Miss Marcelina Tripp and Mrs. Kinker of Portsmouth.

Miss Ethel Kirsch of Eighth street is enjoying a two weeks' vacation from her work in the First National Bank.

Mrs. Phil Pratt and Mrs. Jake Leeder of Huntington, are visiting Mrs. Robert Laming of 1120 Third street. Their husbands will join them here next Sunday.

Dear Miss Wise—Will you please tell me how to remove ink stains from white soisette? THANK YOU.
Turpentine, peroxide, or sweet milk will remove ink stains.

Dear Miss Wise—Please publish the name and address of Asa G. Candler's son? How should the letter be addressed to reach him personally? JAMES.

A letter addressed to New Orleans will probably reach him.

Dear Dolly—I see in your column where you answer so many questions, I will ask you my first one. "I have an Oliver Typewriter that needs repair. Could you tell me where to send it." BROWN EYES.
Call me up and I'll tell you.

Mrs. E. M. Funk, 716 Ninth street, will go to Washington C. H., Ohio, tomorrow to attend the wedding of Charles Chucules of this city and Miss Spiritina Skufe of New York, which will take place Sunday. Mr. Chucules is connected with the Manhattan Hotel of this city.

JACK DAW'S ADVENTURES

All day Jack had been planning on a means of escape. He finally decided that the only means would be to get down to the ground on some kind of a ladder. He quickly pulled all the bed clothes from the bed and tied them end to end.

Mrs. C. W. Lowe, 1528 Seventh street left for Columbus this morning where she will be with her daughter, Miss Stella Rowe, who underwent an operation for goitre at ten o'clock at Grant Hospital. Dr. Andrew Crotti, famous surgeon at that institution, performed the operation. Mrs. Rowe will remain over the week-end with her daughter.

Miss Ethel Kirsch entertained with an informal card party last evening at her home on Eighth street, her guests being the members of the Rambler Club and their friends. The rooms were decorated with fall flowers and Five Hundred provided diversion for several hours, after which a dainty ice course was served at the small tables.

Those enjoying the evening were: Misses Mary Graf, Marie Noel, Effie Cranston, Pauline Oakes, Mildred Purdum; Messrs. Walter Molander, Glenn Duis, LeRoy Compton, Lewis Maguet, Earl Hayes, Drew Leedom of New Philadelphia, Ohio and Mr. and Mrs. Harold Hayes.

Dr. David H. Jones, Chicago, who spoke at Second Presbyterian Church last night was the guest while in the city of Mr. and Mrs. John E. Williams. Second street, and today was accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. Williams to Jackson for the Elstedford.

Mrs. C. T. Anderson, 1110 Kinney's Lane, has returned from a short visit with friends in Cincinnati.

Mrs. John Kilgullin, 1215 Sinton street, stenographer at the office of Marvin Clark, First National Bank, has returned from a vacation spent with friends at Vanceburg, and other points in Kentucky.

Mrs. Charles Levi of Great Falls, Montana, and Miss Ethel Bamberger, of Toledo, are enjoying the hospitality of Mr. and Mrs. Abe Mayer, Fourth and Bond streets.

Drew Leedom, New Philadelphia, is spending several days with friends in this city.

Misses Robt. Hied and Emma Adis and Mr. Fred Brown will motor to Columbus tomorrow for the Ohio State-Michigan football game.

The home of Mr. and Mrs. James H. Ryan of 212 Market street was the scene of a very delightful gathering Thursday evening, October 19th, planned by relatives and friends in honor of the sixteenth birthday anniversary of their son, William Gordon Ryan. After the guests had assembled at their home, Gordon was called home from Ferrel Bros.' fruit store, on Second street, where he is employed. On arriving home he found to his great surprise many of his friends and relatives there to greet him. The evening's pleasures consisted of piano music, games and a social good time, after which refreshments of ice cream and cake were served by the hostess. Mrs. Ryan was assisted by Mrs. Clarence Miller and Mrs. Harry Easter in serving the following guests: William Gordon Ryan, guest of honor; Mrs. Edward Spencer and daughter, Miss Nellie; Mr. and Mrs. H. D. Easter and son, Harold; Mr. and Mrs. P. S. Easter and son, Walter; Earnest and daughter Anna; Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Miller, daughter Margaret and son Robert Vernon; Ora Hazelbaker, Gordon Green, all of Buena Vista; Miss Nellie Meisel, Elizabeth Lindsey, Miss Johanna Lordier, Miss Lorana Hazelbaker, Miss Anna Meisel, Mr. Albert Ross, Mrs. Emma Brooks and daughter, Miss Mildred; Edna and Lewis Miller, Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Ryan.

Gordon received many beautiful presents and two delicious birthday cakes with candles were presented to him by Mrs. Clarence Miller and Mrs. H. D. Easter of Buena Vista.

Mrs. Richard Bord of High street and Mrs. O. T. Heberlin and daughter, Miss Ruby Heberlin, of Eighteenth street, will go to Columbus tomorrow to visit friends over the week-end and to attend the Ohio State-Michigan football game in the big stadium.

The Standard Bearers and Queen Esther Circle of the Franklin Avenue M. E. church will hold a bake and candy sale beginning tomorrow morning at ten o'clock at the Cut Rate Meat Market, Gallia and Gay streets.

MARRIAGE A LA MODE
Mourning customs in China are very definitely established. A woman mourns three years for her husband.

During the first year she wears coarse cotton, during the second a somewhat finer grade, and the third year she may wear silk.

The color of mourning is white, which is supposed to indicate pure sorrow. A widow's term of mourning is only one year.

Adventures Of The Twins

BY OLIVE ROBERTS BARTON

YOU'LL never believe it, I'm sure, but at last Nancy and Nick reached the Fairy Queen's Palace in the magic automobile. The magic pill that Light Fingers dropped into the gasoline tank (making the car go backward) was the last of their troubles, for the Green Wizard stuck out his toe and turned the car around, and although it was still going backward, it soon arrived at the Fairy Queen's Palace.

You should have been there to hear the rejoicing when the Twins appeared sound and well and as happy as harlequins (if you know what that is, although Nancy would have to be a columbine, being a girl.)

All the Queen's counselors stood around and helped them out, while the new chauffeur, called Gloves N. Leggins, looked over the queer little car and said it was as good as new. All he needed to do, he said, was to fix the figamcrank and mend the thingamabob and straighten the whirlingig and patch the tires and repair the engine and send away for a new top.

Outside of that everything was all right. The Fairy Queen was so happy to have Nancy and Nick back safely that she made them a present of the Green Shoes.

Before that, you know, she had only loaned them to them. "And now, my little friends," said she, "would you like to rest, or go at once on another adventure?" "Another adventure?" cried both children at once.

"Well, then," answered the Fairy Queen, "I have one all ready. Mother Goose has lost her broom and doesn't know where to find it." (To Be Continued)

The Finishing Touch
A pleasant addition to a broiled steak or chops, fried chicken or breaded veal, is a generous serving of potato chips. Only those whose chips are above reproach (Bernell's Goldenrod Potato Chips) should be served. Buy them at your grocer's.

CORK CAKE

BY BERTHA E. SHAPLEIGH

VERY reliable and inexpensive recipe for layer cake:

2 eggs
1 cup sugar
1 1/2 cups flour
1/4 teaspoon salt
2 1/2 teaspoons vanilla
2 teaspoons baking powder

Beat eggs until light, add sugar and continue to beat until creamy. Add milk, then flour sifted with salt, cream of tartar soda (or baking powder) and the vanilla.

Do not heat the mixture after adding flour, but stir until no dry flour is visible. Bake in two layers from 20 to 25 minutes in an oven hot enough to send the mixture to the top of the pan in five minutes; then reduce heat.

Put layers together with frosting or jelly, or a good cream filling.

CREAM FILLING

1 1/2 cups milk
1/2 cup sugar
1/4 teaspoon salt
1 egg

Mix sugar, salt and flour until there are no lumps of flour, then add to milk which has been scalded and stir until the mixture begins to thicken. Cook ten minutes. Add egg slightly beaten and cook five minutes. Turn into a shallow pan to cool; flavor when cold.

If chocolate is desired, heat one square or one ounce with the milk or add one-fourth cup cocoa to the dry flour and sugar.

Jack waited until midnight. Then he tied one end of his sheet ladder to the bed post. He then climbed up quietly and started down. His faithful dog, Flip, was waiting below and barked a greeting. Jack slid down the rope hurriedly but quietly.

"Be still, Flip," said Jack as he neared the ground. Do you want to wake the guard up? The boy then dropped off the end of the ladder. Flip didn't bark again but he jumped up and pawed at Jack. He was glad to see him again. Continued.

Constipation Can Be Blamed For Diabetes and Bright's Disease!

And, constipation is responsible for most cases of rheumatism, lumbago, sciatica, neuritis, and many other organic diseases! Constipation hampers all age; in fact, authorities tell you that 90% OF ALL HUMAN ILLNESSES IS DIRECTLY TRACABLE TO CONSTIPATION!

With knowledge like that can you stand by and see yourself slipping physically; see your loved ones fall, as the prey of a preventable condition? Do not minimize the danger of constipation because you are only "slightly" troubled.

Inactivity of the eliminative passage creates toxic conditions which permeate the intestinal walls, poisoning the blood and affecting the organs.

BRAN—Kalllogg's Bran, cooked and krumbed—is nature's own positive and permanent relief from constipation. It is the most wonderful corrective food known. Bran is not a "remedy," but a "roughage" that through its mineral salts and ability to absorb water—giving bulk and moisture—insists in perfect elimination. We guarantee that if Kalllogg's Bran is eaten regularly—at least two tablespoons daily—in chocolate cream with every meal—that the sufferer will be relieved permanently! Bran is wonderful for children, for the aged, for every one!

Kalllogg's Bran is delicious, its nut-like flavor greatly adding to the enjoyment of eating cereals over which it has been sprinkled. Kalllogg's Bran makes the tastiest of bakery wafers, such as gems, raisin bread, muffins, macaroons, etc. All grocers sell Kalllogg's Bran.

The FLAMING JEWEL

by ROBERT W. CHAMBERS
© 1922 GEORGE K. DORAN COMPANY

BEGIN HERE TODAY

In his hunting camp in the Adirondacks, MIKE CLINCH, run-runner and law-breaker in general, is hoarding the Flaming Jewel, that priceless gem first stolen from the COUNTESS OF ESTHONIA by the international thief, QUINTANA, and stolen from Quintana by Clinch.

Quintana has returned to gain possession of the jewel which CLINCH passionately holds as the means of "making a lady" of his beautiful step-daughter, EVE STRAYER. JAMES DARRAGH, under the name of HAL SMITH, is at Clinch's camp seeking to gain possession of the gem and restore it to the beggared countess.

Eve is captured by Quintana, savagely treated, but escapes to the hunting camp at Star Pond. Here, with STATE TROOPER STORMONT, she awaits the return for Clinch and his men who have gone out to clean up Quintana's gang.

Clinch discovers that one of his men, EARL LEVERETT, has gone over to Quintana. Leverett escapes in a hail of bullets from Clinch's rifle.

poverty and fear—above all else fear—would end forever!

When, at last, he came out to the edge of Clinch's clearing, the dark October heavens were but a vast wilderness of stars.

The light burned steadily from Eve's window.

CHAPTER IV

FROM his hiding place among frost-blackened rag-weeds, the trap-rover could see only the plastered ceiling of the ber chamber.

But the kerosene lamp cast two shadows on that—tail shadows of human shapes that stirred at times.

The shadows on the ceiling were cast by Eve Strayer and her State Trooper.

Eve sat on her bed's edge, swathed in a lilac kimono—delicate relic of school days. Her bandaged feet, crossed, dangled above the rag-rug on the floor; her slim, tanned fingers were interlaced over the book on her lap.

Near the door stood State Trooper Stormont, spurred, booted, trig and trim, an undecided and flushed young man, fumbling irresolutely with the purple cord on his campaign hat.

She looked up at him again, wistfully. Perhaps he was restless, bored, sitting there beside her half the day, and, already, half the night. Men of that kind—active, nervous young men accustomed to the open, can't stand caging.

"I want you to go out and get some fresh air," she said. "It's a wonderful night. Go and walk a while. And—if you feel like—coming back to me—"

"Will you sleep?"

"No, I'll wait for you."

Her words were natural and direct, but in their simplicity there stirred him.

"I'll come back to you," he said.

Then, in his response, the girl in her turn became aware of something beside the simple words—a vague charm about them that faintly haunted her after he had gone away down the stairs.

That was the man she had once tried to kill! At the sudden and terrible recollection she shivered from curly head to bandaged feet. Then she trembled a little with the memory of his lips against her bruised hands—bruised by handcuffs which he had fastened upon her.

She sat very, very still now, huddled on the bed's edge, scarcely breathing.

For the girl was beginning to dare formulate the deepest of any thoughts that ever had stirred her virgin mind and body.

It was love, then it had come suddenly, and strangely. It had come on that day—at the very moment when he flung her against the tree and handcuffed her—that terrible instant—if it were love.

Listening there where she sat clasping the book, she heard his steady tread patrolling the veranda—caught the faint fragrance of his brier pipe in the still night air.

"I think—I think it's love," she said under her breath. "But he couldn't ever think of me—" always listening to his spurred tread below.

After a while she placed both bandaged feet on the rug. It hurt her, but she stood up, walked to the open window. She wanted to look at him—just a moment—

There is keen delight in wearing a Suit or Overcoat of best make, and latest design and enjoying that feeling of being socially presentable anywhere. You will find in our showing the best of man-tailors' art, fashioned of the new season materials, all quality made, in every stitch and seam at moderate prices.

Buy your Boy's Clothes here. Bear in mind two tests when you buy your boy a Suit or Overcoat. The first is the eye test for smart, mannish style. The second is the wear test after months of hard usage.

(Extragood) Clothes for boys survive both these tests better than any other boys' clothing. Double and triple stitched seams. Buttons on for keeps, and ample provision for letting out at waist, seat and sleeve.

Remember our charge account plan is always at your service and makes shopping here easy. It enables you to have your clothes when you need them.

Won't Enter U. S. Without Doll

When Leone Pratt, 6, arrived at Ellis Island from England, tightly clasping her big doll Betty, immigration officials asked to see Betty's passport. Whereupon Leone burst into tears. "I'll go right back to England if Betty can't come in," she wailed. Leone didn't go back. Neither did Betty.

Centre Is All Set For Harvard

BOSTON, Oct. 20.—(A. P.)—Centre College football players determined to show the country that a small college can defeat Harvard at football, two seasons in succession, journey to the stadium today to put the finishing touches on the plays Centre will use in its third and probably last battle with the Crimson tomorrow.

Captain Roberts worked out at fullback, the position at which Coach Moran said the versatile captain would start tomorrow. Tom Bartlett, half back of last year's eleven, is with the squad, but will not be able to play because of a throat trouble that has kept him in bed since the team left Danville. About fifty thousand people will see the game.

"The Tragedy Of The Empty House"

Discussed At Bigelow Service

"The new Testament brings us the picture of the heart of God, brooding in infinite love over the wayward hearts of His children."

Dr. Birney described the length to which the love of God has gone to win back the love of men. "The heart of God will never cease its yearning, so long as one sinful soul remains away from the Father's house," he declared.

Speaking of the excuses by which men reject God's calls of grace, the evangelist said the three men in the parable were eternally typical. "One bought a farm, another some oxen, and the third married a wife, and each used his transaction as an excuse for hating God. Their real reason was in their hearts, however, and not in their possessions."

"Many a man boasts of owning things, while the fact may be that the things own the man. More than once a bit of ground has blinded a soul to the love of God. The pride of possession may turn to avarice and others."

"God help us to get out the way of others."

selfishness to damning sin."

"If the Devil can get a man to wear spectacles made out of copper pennies, he can lead his soul where he wills. I knew of one whole family who manifestly started for hell in a Ford. Later they were traveling in a Packard, as sudden wealth was allowed to wrest them away from the church and its altar of prayer."

"The third man who married a wife, was the silliest of the three. The family, above every other institution, needs the presence of God. Wedded love should lift us toward divine love, instead of affording an excuse for its rejection. The profoundest temptations come from human relations. The rule of the 'gang' is well-nigh supreme. Before a certain one hundred men, here in Portsmouth, shall ever be saved, there is one key man who must first surrender to God. Back of every one of you there are those who will never be saved until you lead them to Christ."

"God help us to get out the way of others."

Dr. Birney closed his sermon with an appeal to allow nothing to deaden the calls of God. "When the heart really hears that call," he said, "not all the powers of hell can prevent a soul from finding its way back home."

The service tonight will be of especial interest to high school students and young people generally. Dr. Birney's subject will be, "The Music of the Angels."

TO-MORROW IS THE LAST DAY OF OUR 49th ANNIVERSARY SALE

Tomorrow brings to a close the greatest sale of low prices the public has enjoyed for a number of years. And we are justly proud of the response that has been given us during this fifteen day event. The word "appreciation" but faintly reflects the true sentiment that this store desires to express to its thousands of friends of the magnificent response accorded them from the first day of its opening. So while we are at a loss for the proper expression of appreciation to the thousands who favored us with their presence during this sale, we know that the true depth of our feeling will be understood when we resort to an old fashioned but sincere expression and say WE THANK YOU. Here are a few specials from various departments that will help you to remember a real sale with real values.

SONG BIRDS ARE FLUTTERING TO JACKSON, O. THIS IS "EISTEDDFOD DAY" THERE

Local Community Chorus Is On Splendid Program

All roads led to Jackson Friday as it is the day on which the famous Eisteddfod was scheduled to take place.

With business houses and residences decorated for the occasion, Jackson took on a gala appearance today and was in time for the waves of harmony that will sweep through that stable, bustling little city.

Of course, Portsmouth's interest in the songster centered in the showing to be made by the local Community Chorus comprising more than 60 voices. Trained to a fine point, this well balanced chorus, which embraces real musical talent is expected to make a splendid impression. Accompanied by a number of friends the chorus departed in automobiles to-day for the scene of what is expected to be their vocal triumph.

Thousands from all parts of the state are expected to attend the song contest and arrangements have been made to take care of all visitors in Jackson's customary hospitable style, broad smiles and open arms.

The official list of entries in the various choruses is as follows:

Mixed Chorus—Portsmouth, Gallipolis-Rio Grande, Middleport-Pomero, the Community Chorus of Wellston and Jackson.

Male Chorus—Community Chorus of Wellston, Gallipolis-Rio Grande, Oak Hill and Jackson.

Ladies' Chorus—Community chorus of Wellston and Jackson.

Children's Chorus—Raceoon Song Birds, of Rio Grande. Community Chorus of Wellston, Gallipolis and Jackson.

The number of entries in the other Eisteddfod numbers is as follows:

Male Quartet—5.
Mixed Quartet—5.
Duet, (tenor and bass)—7.
Duet, soprano and alto—3.
Solo, tenor—5.
Solo, baritone—5.
Solo, alto—3.
Solo, soprano, (any age)—6.
Solo, soprano, (under 10 yrs.)—5.
Solo, boy under 10 years—4.
Violin Solo—3.
Piano Solo (any age)—4.
Piano Solo, (12 to 16 years)—11.
Piano Solo, (under 12 years)—4.
Piano Duet, (10 to 14 years)—2.
Essay—5.
Poem, "October"—10.
Poem, "The Fourth of July"—4.
Recitation, "The Highwayman"—1.
Recitation, "Nothing but Flags"—0.
Drawing—5.
Penmanship—5.

Elimination contests will be held in all these numbers, except in the four principal choruses. The contestants in the various numbers will be eliminated down to three except in the piano solo and the recitation of "The Highwayman," and these will be eliminated down to two contestants.

The program will not be completed until late tonight.

COMPTON DIES; DANIELS MAY RECOVER

James Compton, aged 66, Mr. Joy merchant, who was shot twice last Sunday by his neighbor and rival in business, Bud Daniels, succumbed to his wounds at 1:35 Friday morning in Hempstead hospital. His condition has been serious for several days and he had undergone several operations in the hopes of staying the hand of death. He began sinking late last night and passed away early this morning.

Daniels, who was also shot twice by Compton and with the latter's own gun, was reported better Friday at Hempstead hospital, and he has a fighting chance to recover.

Sheppard said Friday that no charge would be preferred against Daniels until his exact condition was determined. "We are investigating all phases of the double shooting," the prosecutor said today.

I have learned that Daniels entered Compton's barn looking for his

Love Making Wrecked Him

EBENSBURG, Pa., Oct. 20—(By The Associated Press) —Geo. Abraham, Franklin grocer, says in a breach of promise suit on file here today that his love affair wrecked him "physically and financially."

He set out in his petition, asking for $24,000 that he used two motor cars and "nearly all of his time" in wooing Mrs. Mary S. Albert of Conemaugh.

When she promised to marry him he gave her a $1,600 diamond engagement ring, he says, which she now refuses to return.

WEST SIDE

Mr. and Mrs. William Shively of Friendship are visiting their son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. George Shively, of 1307 Kliney street, Portsmouth, this week.

Mrs. Addie Bruce of Otway, who was visiting relatives and friends in Portsmouth, and Mrs. Rose Johnson of Owensville for several days, has returned home.

Mrs. Lydia Shultz of Rushtown spent Wednesday with Mrs. Carrie Ellis of McDermott.

SOCIETY

A dinner of pretty appointments was given last evening by Mrs. Charles Scudder when she entertained the members of the Anniversary club at her home on Baird avenue, in honor of her husband's birthday anniversary. The affair was a complete surprise to Mr. Scudder.

The guests were seated at one large table, which was beautifully decorated with flowers, while lighted candles and gleaming silverware added the finishing touch. Favors and table appointments were in perfect taste, and covers were laid for twelve.

Following the dinner, the remainder of the evening was devoted to dancing.

Mr. and Mrs. N. B. Griffin and son, John Kennedy, of Fourth street, and Mr. and Mrs. M. W. Prosch of Third street motored to Columbus this afternoon. They will attend the Ohio State-Michigan football game Saturday afternoon.

THEATRICAL

Change of Bill at Sun

A hectic avalanche of rollicking fun, mirth and laughter and pretty women is a good description of "The Blue Rose" the new show to be presented today and tomorrow by Vogel and Miller's Olds and Bink of 1922 at the Sun. The company figures in a musical comedy of luring melodies, side-splitting situations, unusual surprises and novelties with scenic embellishment. The musical comedy is all new and this bill is presented for the first time in Portsmouth. The Ladies Trio and the hard shoe dancers continue to make big hits at each performance.

The five part photoplay "Paid Back" a first run feature with Gladys Brockwell and Stuart Holmes as the stars. The picture is one of the best in the city. Tomorrow at the children's matinee at 2:30 each and every child will receive a whistle balloon.

Graded Cattle Return After Winning Many Blue Ribbons

Joseph Peebles' herd of graded Herefords, which have won all kinds of blue ribbons at county fairs held in various parts of Ohio, West Virginia and Pennsylvania will be shipped here Saturday from Huntington, where they earned additional ribbons at the Tri-State Fair held there. These blooded animals have been on the go for 11 weeks under the direction of the agricultural department of the Ohio State University.

The cattle were shown at the Ohio State Fair and made so favorable an impression there with cattle-wise growers that the O. S. U. took charge of them for an exhibition tour.

The cattle will now go to their winter quarters on Mr. Peebles' farm near Henley.

Bunting In Latonia Classic Which Will Be Run Saturday

LATONIA, Ky., October 20.—(By The Associated Press)—Bunting, Harry Payne Whitney's crack three-year-old colt, arrived here yesterday and completed the list of probable starters that are to compete in the $35,000 Latonia championship stakes tomorrow.

Present indications point to a field of ten or more starters in the big event which is run over a distance of a mile and three quarters and is looked upon as the supreme test for the three-year-old division.

Besides Bunting, Lucky Hour, Missionary and Southern Cross, representing the east, the horses that probably will start, are Rock Minister, surf rider, Cherry Tree Chatterbox, Yoshimida Starline and Margaret Winsor, all western owned. The latter two being fillies, will carry 122 pounds while the others will be asked to shoulder 124 pounds.

KEARNS TO ARRIVE NEXT WEEK

Congressman Charles C. Kearns, of Clermont county, who is fighting desperately to retain his seat as representative from the Sixth district, is expected to arrive in Portsmouth early next week in the interest of his candidacy. He plans to spend several days campaigning in Scioto county and will probably address several rallies.

The congressman has been laid up at his home in Amelia for several days with a severely sprained ankle sustained in a fall and which has handicapped him from making an active campaign.

MR. WINTER TO ADDRESS CLUB

Fred B. Winter, president of B. Scioto County Republican Club, will be the principal speaker before the Thompson-Ford-Governor Club at its social meeting in the Sons of Veterans hall at Friendship this Friday evening. Mr. Winter will discuss the campaign.

Jackson Man Dies Suddenly

JACKSON, Oct. 20.—William T. Harper, 70, retired farmer, died very suddenly here yesterday. Mr. Harper had been spading in the garden and returned to the house and told his wife that he was not feeling very well and he would go up in town. He proceeded to the office of his brother, Attorney John Harper, where he remained about three hours. He returned home at the dinner hour and ate a hearty meal. He again complained of feeling badly and a physician was summoned. About fifteen minutes after his arrival the aged man collapsed and soon was dead.

THE FAMOUS FLORENCE

Hot Blast Air Tight Heater

Here are some of the reasons why the Famous Florence should be in your home.

The Florence heats the floor for five and six feet in all directions.

The Florence will burn soft coal or slack; it will burn hard coal and sawdust, wet or dry which no other stove can do.

The Florence burns all the smoke and gases.

The Florence is air tight below the grate, a wonderful feature.

The Florence is the only heater that has a jointless leg bottom with full radiation and large ash pan.

The Florence will not leave any soot in the pipe or flue.

The Florence distributes heat like a furnace.

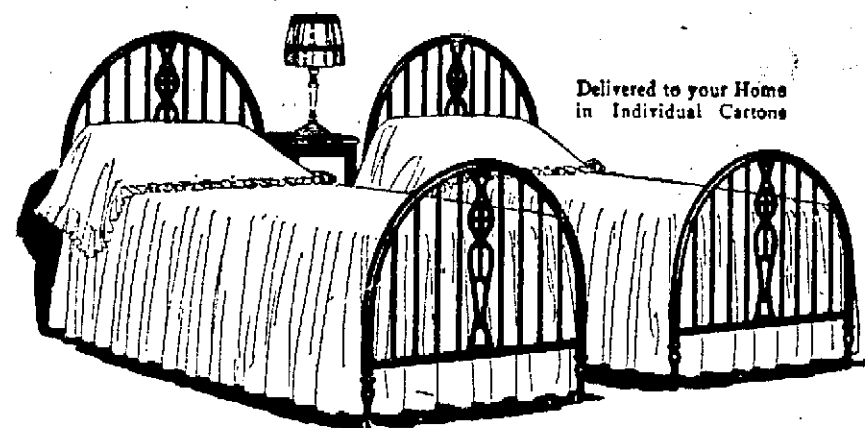

The Florence will be a perfect fire keeper 25 years hence as it is the day you buy it.

If the fire pot burns out in the Florence heater within five years, we will replace it free.

The Florence will heat twice the space any other stove. It will maintain an even temperature at all times, not hot one minute and cold the next.

You must see this Wonder Florence Heater, the only real back draft heater in the world.

Our Guarantee—If by operating this heater according to our directions you find any soot in the pipe or flue at the end of the season, we will refund you your money and make you a present of the heater. No other dealer would dare make such an offer.

You'll be surprised at the low cost of these genuine Simmons Beds

The distinctive character and elegance of Simmons Beds leads many to believe that their cost is greater than they expect to pay for a new bed.

If you have ever had this impression, we are sure it has been due to lack of real knowledge on the subject. Once you take the time to call and inspect these beautiful wood finished beds—you'll be agreeably surprised at their low cost.

You need never experiment or take anything for granted if you will accept the friendly service of this store on matters pertaining to the purchase of new furniture.

All that we have—everything our salesmen know—that will in any degree simplify your problem of homefurnishing and its cost, is yours to command. We aim to make this a store of friendly service; want you to get the greatest return from its displays of Simmons Beds, Day Beds, Crib, Springs and Mattresses.

W. W. Gates Again Heads Sunday School Association

W. W. Gates was re-elected president of the Scioto County Sunday School Association and Institute at this morning's session of the 1922 meeting, being held at the Franklin Avenue M. E. church.

At Thursday night's session it was decided to form an organization of Sunday School Superintendents in the city and temporary officers were chosen as follows: President, Charles

M. Howland; vice president, W. H. Schwartz; and secretary, O. E. Ricker. A permanent organization will be effected later.

The election of officers for the Scioto County Sunday School Association and Institute this morning resulted as follows:

President—W. W. Gates.
First Vice President—C. M. Howland.

Second Vice President—George Koch, Wheelersburg.
Recording Secretary—Mrs. Rosa E. Ward.

Corresponding Secretary—Miss Ethel Jane Steele.
Treasurer—John Brunny.

Children's Superintendent—Mrs. Henry Heer.
Young People's Superintendent—Miss Pearl Eichelberger.

Associate Young People's Superintendent—William Boehm.
Adult Superintendent—H. A. Wright.

Administrative Superintendent—Rev. E. E. Barnhart.

Mrs. W. H. Schwartz and L. W. Bragdon were elected to full terms on the executive committee. Their terms expire in 1925. Mrs. L. E. White was elected to fill an expired 1924 term, while Marion W. Prosch was elected to fill an unexpired 1925 term.

Tonight banners will be awarded to two Sunday schools, one county school and one city school.

They are awarded on three requirements, written report, offering and attendance, the city school and county school ranking the highest at the convention to receive the banners.

After the banquet at the church, Thursday evening divisional institute sessions were held. In the administration division Rev. E. E. Barnhart took charge and it was at this meeting of superintendents and assistants that the temporary organization was formed. The children's division was led by Miss Helen Dowling. Miss Alice May of Columbus directed the Young People's session and H. A. Wright the adult session.

At the regular evening program C. E. Dowling took charge of the devotionals in the absence of Rev. G. H. Weaver of Lucasville. A. T. Arnold, secretary of the Ohio State Sunday School Association found it impossible to be present at the convention and sent in his place L. B. Edgar, state superintendent of the Adult Department, of the State Association.

Mr. Edgar and Dr. J. B. Hawk both talked on religious education last night, the speakers discussing the subject from different viewpoints.

At this morning's session the devotional exercises were led by Rev. Carl Swazy of the new United Brethren church at Nauvoo. Rev. D. S. Lamb of Haverhill had for his subject "The Cross in Christian Service." W. L. Richards of West

Union, superintendent of the Adams County Sunday School Association, talked on "Field Organization." The remainder of the morning was given over to the reading of reports from the different schools, the roll call of townships and the election of officers.

This afternoon Rev. L. N. Kayser, Rev. L. C. Watts and Rev. Hugh I. Evans were on the program. The 1922 convention closes with this evening's session starting at 7:30 o'clock.

Miss Alice May, state worker in charge of the Young People's division and Mr. Edgar will make addresses tonight.

SOCIETY

Mr. and Mrs. B. B. Applegate and son, Oliver, have returned to their home in Alliance, Ohio, after a week's visit with his sister, Mrs. Frank Gilleck of Twelfth street. Mr. Applegate is vice chief of the Bell Telephone Company of Alliance.

Group 15 of the Trinity Ladies' Aid Society met in business and social session Thursday afternoon at the home of Mrs. E. E. Seig on Third street. The next meeting will be with Mrs. Harvey Lindsey of Robinson avenue.

A miscellaneous shower was tendered Mrs. George Gabbert (Lena Rider) Tuesday evening at the home of her mother, Mrs. Louise Rider, of Robinson avenue. Many useful and beautiful presents were received and later in the evening a delicious Dutch lunch was served to the following: Misses Ollie Burke, Carol Stevens, Sallie Stewart, Mary Akers, Lella Davies, Florence Webster, Dorothy McMeans, Mrs. John Sims and daughters Ruth and Helen, Mary Erwin, Ida Evans, Nora Harr and Messrs. Ray Murphy, Bill McMeans. All enjoyed the evening until a late hour in dancing and music. Mr. and Mrs. Gabbert are at home to their many friends in their flat on East Gallia street.

Mrs. Warwick W. Anderson, 451 Brown street, very charmingly entertained the members of the Art Circle and a number of guests at the first full meeting of the Circle yesterday afternoon at her home.

A profusion of bright colored cosmos in wicker baskets and cut glass vases added a pleasing touch of color to the rooms. A short business session was held in the forepart of the afternoon, at which election of officers was held for the ensuing year. Mrs. D. A. Berndt was elected president of the Circle, while Mrs. J. Frost Davis was elected secretary.

A social hour followed the business during which a dainty two course lunch was served by Mrs. Anderson. The club adjourned to meet with Mrs. James Hager as next hostess.

Guests enjoying the afternoon in addition to the Circle members were: Mrs. H. S. Grimes, Mrs. Harry E. Taylor, Mrs. Levi D. York, Mrs. Edward Stevens, Mrs. Milton H. Longfellow, Mrs. Russell Anderson, Mrs. Glenn Edwards, Misses Vere and Margaret Crawford.

Members of this congenial club include: Mrs. George M. Appel, Mrs. Grant Williams, Mrs. J. Frost Davis, Mrs. John E. Williams, Mrs. Pearl E. Selby, Mrs. D. A. Grimes, Mrs. George Thomas, Mrs. E. N. Patterson, Mrs. Harry A. Schirman, Mrs. James A. Hager, Mrs. O. J. Russell, Mrs. Charles Spencer, Mrs. Grace J. Goodwin, Mrs. Felix Haas, Mrs. Albert Marting, Mrs. Henry Heer, Mrs. D. A. Berndt and the hostess.

The Pythian Sisters, Elrose Temple 504 met in regular business and social session last evening at their hall, corner of Fourth and Washington streets, with forty members present. Mrs. Charles Scott, Mrs. Hazel Coriell, Mrs. Frank Bender and Mrs. J. R. Craigman were reported sick. Final arrangements were made for the dance to be held next Friday night, October 27th. Tickets for the dance may be secured from any Pythian Sister. After the business meeting the Peerless Boys donated one hour of their time and the members thoroughly enjoyed their delightful program of music.

Before adjournment delicious refreshments were served by the committee in charge of arrangements.

The initiation which was to have been held last night was postponed until next Thursday night.

Miss Adelaide Therkeldson has returned from Cincinnati, where she has been purchasing flowers and other decorations for the Orin J. Onkes Floral Shop, on Sixth street.

St. Mary's Club members were very pleasantly entertained yesterday afternoon by Mrs. J. J. Dalton at her home on Sixth street. The rooms were cleverly decorated with Halloween novelties, the color scheme of orange and black predominating. Grinning pumpkin faces, black cats and similar suggestions of the season were used.

The afternoon was devoted to cards and music, and at five o'clock appetizing refreshments were served by Mrs. Dalton, assisted by Mrs. Bernard Sommer, Mrs. Fred Schwartz and the only guest, Mrs. Alex M. Glockner. Second street will be the next hostess.

Dr. and Mrs. J. P. Elder left today for Columbus to attend the Ohio State-Michigan football game. They will be the guests over the weekend of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Echeverie, who have arranged for several social affairs in honor of Dr. and Mrs. Elder's wedding anniversary.

Huntington Glass Company Urged To Move Plant Here

W. D. Fulton, Democratic candidate for secretary of state, was in the city a few minutes Thursday en route to Columbus from Huntington, W. Va., where he is interested in the Huntington Glass Company, whose plant was recently destroyed by fire.

He had been in Huntington meeting with stockholders of the company. While here yesterday he was met by President Adam Frick of the Chamber of Commerce, who invited Mr. Fulton to have his company consider Portsmouth as a new site for the Glass Company when they rebuild.

Harding Not To Remove Sawyer At This Time

WASHINGTON, October 20.—(By the United Press)—President Harding will not grant for the present, at least, the demand of the American Legion for removal of his personal physician, Brigadier General C. E. Sawyer, as head of the Hospitalization Board, it was learned here today, from sources close to the president.

The president is known to feel that Sawyer was unjustly criticized by the legion, and while the hospital construction program was delayed the doctors handling the matter will be justified in the end. Sawyer declined to make any comment on the legion's demand other than to state he was surprised at the action. He said he might issue a statement later.

Pester Is Assaulted; Assailant Is Missing

Police Friday were searching for a man named Smith, who, it was claimed, assaulted W. M. Pester following a dispute in the vicinity of Eleventh and Waller streets last night.

Pester was given a rather severe wallop and when brought to the police station was bleeding profusely about the mouth and head. He claimed that the assault was wholly unprovoked and signed a warrant for the arrest of his assailant.

New Leaders Of Rail Union

DETROIT, MICH.—All sorts of surprises were given Detroit by the national convention of the United Brotherhood of Maintenance of Way Employees and Railway Shop Laborers, just closed.

Not the least of these was the complete sweep of offices by the anti-administration forces. Edward F. Grable, who seemed certain of re-election as grand president, was defeated by F. J. Fljozdal, of Dauphin, Manitoba, Canada. Elmer E. Milleman, Mt. Morris, N. Y., took office over the favored candidate for grand secretary-treasurer.

Grable's supporters felt confident that his work to keep the brotherhood out of the July strike of railway shop craft workers would insure his re-election.

Market Master John Petry announced Friday that next Thursday's market would be the last one on Thursday and from that date there will be two weekly markets, Tuesday and Saturday.

The defense indicated its intention to put Mrs. McNally on the stand to repeat her version—a story of conspiracy between herself and her husband to work a maternity hoax so McNally's ambition to be known again as a father might be appeased. One witness, Mrs. Mary Griffiths, a nurse who was with Mrs. McNally during those days after the alleged birth, testified she was not permitted to cure for the twins, but that once she saw the face of one, which she declared had a nose bleed.

No trace of the missing twins, whether dolls or babies, has been found. Mrs. McNally said she destroyed them last April, stating that she had sent them to Chicago.

Kash and Carry

Our Mr. Kline has just recently returned from a two weeks' stay in New York, where he has secured the very latest in FEMININE AP-PAREL AND ACCESSORIES.

The Picture Hat and the Small Hat Yield to Temptation and Take a Decided Downward Tilt.

—Dozens of times the tilt is made a trifle more daring by an uncured ostrich sweeping straight across the brim.

—Sometimes burnt goose perches at a rakish angle and once in a while a piece of osprey shoots directly skyward.

AND THE EXTREMEST THAT DAME FASHION IS—She displays poke hats—quaint, picturesque and with a most grandmotherly shyness at the same time. But, between you and me, she simply does it to make the tilt of her fore-mentioned favorites more daring.

NOT TO NEGLECT COLOR—We shall quote the following: "Brown is followed in favor by copper, rust, reddish chocolate, purple, silver and dull gold, some royal blue, reseda and duck green. Black is by no means superseded and its reign is far from being ended.

AND MILLINERY FOR WINTER PRESENTS AUTHENTIC STYLES—It is almost an axiom that the Hats designed for the Winter season are the most beautiful of any of the year, and because this year is no exception, we take more than ordinary pleasure in presenting a display from which you'll enjoy choosing your new chapeaux.

Highlights of the Winter mode are a dignified picturesqueness in medium large hats, irregular brims widest at the sides and trimmings of ribbon, burnt peacock, metal embroideries and lace.

All will delight you in style and price.

What Tested Want Ads Do Best

Hunt A Job

Every year millions of employers find millions of employees in the want ad columns of the newspapers of the country.

The wise employer goes first through the classified columns when he is looking for the worker he wants. He knows that want ads are better than any employment agency.

Experience has taught him that the man who advertises for a job is "up and doing"—doesn't wait for things to come his way—is progressive. The "door to door" method of hunting a job is "way out of date. The modern way—want ads—multiplies your efforts hundreds of times.

Merchants, manufacturers, farmers—all business men—read the want ads regularly. They are looking for help where the best help can be found.

When you're after a new place, let us know about it. A Tested Want Ad will be gotten up for you by The Times want ad service department.

PROF. PEPP REAL SHOW; REPEATED TONIGHT

It's just a scream. You all heard that expression, but if you want to see it, just go to the high school auditorium tonight and witness the performance of Prof. Pepp. If you're not the blues, Prof. Pepp and his entertainers will soon chase them out of you. If you don't like to laugh, better stay home, as the clever antics of the players will make you fairly scream in paroxysms of laughter. As each player appeared it was the signal for a new outburst of laughter and applause. There was no let-up to the hilarity from the time the curtain rose until the last act.

Real histrionic talent was revealed in profusion and the entire sketch abounded in comedy and every role was excellently portrayed.

The songs, dances, and specialty bits were of the very highest order and the whole play was more than it was advertised to be. There have been some wonderful home talent plays given in Portsmouth but none have been more enjoyable than Prof. Pepp.

There are a number of good seats left for tonight and those who were unable to see the show last evening should not fail to see it tonight. The proceeds of the play go to Mercy Hospital and in addition to enjoying a couple of hours of real fun, you are helping a worthy cause.

The story of the play is in brief, something like this:

The curtain rises on a lavish set, representing with careful accuracy to nature beauty in scenic arrangement, the residence of Professor Pepp on the college campus. It is the opening day of school. The stage is filled with college students, snuggly and colorfully attired. They sing the opening chorus "Borneo" which is led by Leo Krieger. Professor Pepp (Fred Stokes) returns from a visit to Russia. He is a nervous wreck due to the fact that he believes his life is in immediate danger as the result of having betrayed the Russian Redemmers, a supposed band of Bolshevik nihilists operating their secret society at Moscow. This character was wonderfully portrayed by Mr. Stokes. He was a nervous wreck from the start to finish and would almost go into hysterics at the mere mention of "Borneo" which was the password of the Russian anarchists.

Dr. Whitmer as a "butterfly of 45" was more than a scream. He was a howling success, dressed in his college togs with a brown wig disjuncting his bald head. The doctor jumps about like a whirling dervish, making a bit with the charming young college beauties.

A garden party by moonlight is reproduced with wonderful effect upon the campus in the second act. The song "Georgia" is sung by a chorus of pretty girls, led by Edward Schmauck. A football victory is celebrated, and judging from the enthusiasm and hilarity displayed one would think that Ohio State had defeated Michigan in the big stadium at Columbus. Hutchinson (Dr. Whitmer) who has come to college disguised as his own son a handsome young man of 21 is the hero of the game. He is having the time of his "young" life, and is about to win one of the pretty young girls as his wife, when his handsome son appears on the scene and not only spoils everything but wins the girl in the bargain. The part of the handsome son is taken by Joseph Schmauck, who has "such wonderful eyes" that it is love at first sight with every girl who sees. Miss Anna Goodman, takes the part of a dainty young college girl of nineteen who is as stubborn and determined as most love sick girls at that age. Betty refused to look at any other man after she had seen those wonderful eyes of Howard Green. (Joseph Schmauck).

Miss Anna Goodman, who took the part of Aunt Minerva, housekeeper for Prof. Pepp, hails from Ironton. She is an old maid who was deserted by her would-be husband one week before her marriage twenty-four years ago, and has been a man hater ever since. She was so bitter against the man who deserted her that she carried a little rifle gun around in her purse and vowed if she ever met him there would be a wedding or a funeral. Since nobody likes to attend a funeral, of course, there was a double wedding. Miss Goodman was so clever in her acting and make-up that the audience was unable to tell whether she hailed from Ironton or Wheelersburg.

Miss Jane Snyder as Potunia McGinnis, the stage struck servant and her "feller" the village constable, (Ted Labeta) were a whole show in themselves. Ted in his chin whiskers and long duster, was a typical village constable while Miss Snyder, who is a charming young lady and talented actress took the part of the maid to perfection.

Others who had splendid parts and added much to the success of the play were Miss Gertrude Walters, as Carolyn Kay, a gay and happy Freshman. Miss Agnes Frantz, a social leader; Ruth Kilcayne as Vivien Drew, a college belle. Gertrude Lang, as Olga Stoppel, the new dancing teacher from Russia, and Louise Schaeffer as Kitty Glover, a collector of Souvenirs.

Others who had splendid parts in the play were:

Natsy Fleming—A Freshman at College—Charles Snyder.

Pink Hatcher—An Athletic Sophomore—Lawrence Von Lahrte.

Buster Brown—A Volerous Junior—Lee Friel.

Peddler Berison—Working his way through school—Clarence Schaeffer.

Like Miss Albert Ward, who is one of the most talented actresses in the city gave two fancy dances in her usual charming manner. The little miss is as graceful a dancer as one could hope to see any place.

Miss Gertrude Lang and Miss Ruth Kilcayne, who have appeared in public on numerous occasions also gave several clever dances. They executed many new and clever steps and received rounds of applause.

Leo Krieger rendered one of his cleverly arranged skills which was one of the pronounced hits of the evening. The Pony chorus and the drills were composed of the following young ladies:

Men's Chorus

Richard Hink, Edward Schmauck, Chris Kaitenbach, John J. Kellison, Paul Whitmer, Theodore Eck, Jos. Gergen, Charles Emmert, George Dadostr, Louis C. Brown, Julian Snyder and Lawrence Von Lahrte. Mrs. Edith Miller of the Miller Producing Company of Charleston, West Virginia, directed the play and her skill was reflected in the unqualified success of the performance. She is a gracious and charming young woman, and has thoroughly studied and mastered the technique of the production to the finest of details, and has had many years experience in the theatrical world, several of which have been devoted entirely to the staging of this one comedy. The characters are all exceptionally well drawn, and the execution of the various portrayals, many of them of a nature most difficult, as presented by the local amateurs, could not possibly be better. All persons in the play "live" their respective roles, thus accounting for the remarkable authenticity to type. But, then each individual seems to be inherently adapted with no small degree of talent for his or her special characterization. The participants and the director have spent only two week in preparation of the play and they have entirely succeeded in their efforts to visualize the characters created by the author. The comedians, and they are found in abundance in "Professor Pepp," have each well high attained perfection in interpreting the art of Aristophanes.

The theme of this musical play is bright, wholesome and original. The plot is logical. It moves with wonderful rapidity and marvelous smoothness. The dialogue is brisk, veracious, realistic, clever and witty. There are no dull lines in "Professor Pepp."

The accompaniments by Miss Mary Margaret Kean, at the piano and Lawrence Schuler, violinist and Charles Heitz, saxophone, were especially good and contributed much to the success of the undertaking.

New British Premier Has Well Founded Understanding And Sympathy For Americans

(BY RALPH BLUMENFELD)
(Editor London Daily Express)

(Copyright 1922, by the United Press)

LONDON, October 20.—(By the United Press)—The succession of Andrew Bonar Law to the premiership means that the British empire will be back firmly by a master hand to the old tradition of conservatism in international affairs, which means abstinence of adventure abroad, determination not to mingle in affairs of other nations and fixed policy of maintaining the historic tradition of the British empire. It is an old truth that wars and international complications have been studiously avoided by conservatives. The adventures of the Lloyd George government brought things to a climax and forced the conservative majority in the coalition to assert its principles. Bonar Law represents in the fullest sense the true, untainted policy of Britain's ancient conservatism.

He is a careful, conscientious thinking man, who never acts on impulses. If anything, he errs on the side of caution. He is imbued with the spirit of the old Scotch covenants. He has no sympathy with international speculation. His premiership will be remarkable for steady, unswerving determination. First, to get the house in order before attempting to put on decorations. So far as his attitude towards the United States is concerned, I can safely say it will be one of understanding. His sympathy for American democracy is deep and well founded. He, perhaps, more than any other statesman, understands American people, their hopes and aspirations, and I regard it as a magnificent augury for an even closer understanding between the two great democracies that Bonar Law should be first minister of Britain.

FORM SELBY VOLLEY BALL LEAGUE

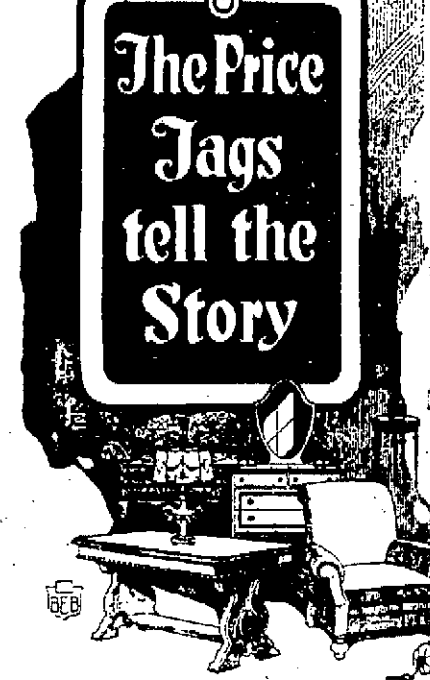

A Selby factory volley ball league has been organized with six teams ready to start play. The first games will be played next Monday evening. Moose hall has been secured for the league games, which will start at 7 balls each evening. New lights have been installed in Moose hall and it will be in top shape for the players next Monday.

The captains of the six teams held a meeting at the factory at 4:30 o'clock Thursday afternoon and perfected plans for the league.

The first game Monday will be between the Pirates and Giants. A schedule is being prepared today for the first round of games.

CLEVELAND.—The Ohio Diocese of the Episcopal Church, Monday will begin a campaign for $900,000. The drive will end December 3.

Student Is Hazed; 10 Suspended

EVANESBURG, N.Y., Oct. 20.—Ten young men, members of the senior class, at the Lewis County High School, captured Joseph Waring, a freshman, and cut a strip of hair across the top of his head, peeling it close with barber's clippers. This was done as part of a hazing program, which the seniors have been carrying on.

The hazing performance, in this case, called forth considerable resistance, and three of the young men were quite seriously hurt.

The hazing occurred at noon intermission, but when Prof. A. W. Glasgow returned from lunch he immediately suspended the ten seniors who had done the hazing. It will be necessary for these boys to give assurance of good behavior before they can return.

Limberlost Aroused By Trial Of Girl For Murder Of Old Man

WHITE CLOUD, MICH.—An old man, poisoned like a useless animal. His dying son beaten until he ceased to quiver.

This is the amazing lack of valuation of human life that is laid to Michigan's "Limberlost" by the state in its trial of Medie Hodell, 26, on a murder charge here.

Strange stories have come out of the "Limberlost"—that isolated region of swamps, stumps and barren land north of here—stories of disregard for law, social customs and rights of others in the wilderness far from the beaten path. But the terrible story of conditions, the state says it will now prove, eclipses all.

Accused of poisoning her husband's father, David Hodell, because "he was feeble and required too much attention," Medie Hodell is in court. Also accused with her in the charge of beating her husband to death are her mother, Mrs. Alice Dudgeon, two brothers, Lee and Herman Dudgeon, and Robert Bennett, a farm hand.

"The Limberlost" is practically deserted. Nearly everybody is in "courtin'." The incongruous garb of the backwoods people gives a big touch of color to the little country court room where the tragic story of swamp land life is being unfolded. Many have been called as witnesses. Others were drawn by curiosity, a curiosity which even has overwhelmed fear of "city folks," and brought some of them to town for the first time in their lives.

Medie Hodell has confessed, officials say, to solving the problem of her aged father-in-law by poisoning his coffee. She is now on trial on this charge.

She and her mother have also confessed, declare authorities, that they later killed Medie's husband, Romie Hodell, with a rolling pin.

David Hodell dropped dead last February as he was carrying in an armful of wood for his daughter-in-law. His death was ascribed to old age; no investigation was made.

Three months later the Dudgeon brothers brought word here that Romie Hodell had hanged himself. County officers found the body hanging from a rafter in the Hodell barn.

Physicians said a blow below the ear caused death. Investigation quickly started. Suspicion spread throughout the county.

In July an angry mob stormed the Dudgeon farm and with ropes around the necks of the two Dudgeon boys, forced a confession from them. The Dudgeons said Bennett, the farm hand, killed Hodell and suspended the body in the barn.

Authorities arrested the Dudgeons, Mrs. Hodell and Bennett.

Then came Medie Hodell's alleged confession.

"We had been quarreling, and Romie was on a cot," says her sworn statement. "As he slept, I picked up a rolling pin and hit him twice on the base of the brain. I felt sorry then, and laid down by his side."

"Romie was still quivering, and mother, who was nearby, struck him again. He grew still—so still we were frightened, and called my brothers and Bennett."

"The boys took the body to the barn. They then put a harness rein around the neck and tied it to a rafter and drove to town and told the officers they found the body that way."

Attorneys for the defense are waging a determined battle in an attempt to show threats and mob violence were used to gain the confessions.

Will Give Masquerade

Yost And Grid Warriors In Columbus

Heavy Frost Is Reported

Another heavy frost prevailed in the city and county Friday morning. House tops glistened with frost this morning.

Charleston, S. C., has one of the safest and most commodious harbors in the United States.

COLUMBUS, O., Oct. 20.—(By the A. P.)—Coach "Harry Up" Yost and his University of Michigan football team arrived here this morning preparatory to the annual Michigan-Ohio State football game in the new Ohio stadium here tomorrow.

More than 65,000 persons will see tomorrow's game which will dedicate the new stadium. It will be the biggest crowd that has ever witnessed a football game in the midwest.

The Michigan football warriors planned to go through a short practice at the stadium sometime during the day and then to indulge in secret practice in some unnamed spot. The Ohio State team completed practice for the Michigan game yesterday.

Thousands of football fans poured into Columbus today. Roads from the north were black with automobiles bearing Michigan license tags and flying University of Michigan colors. Scores of Michigan students walked and bunched automobile rides from Ann Arbor to Columbus, a distance of 200 miles.

Every ticket for tomorrow's game has been sold.

There is no change in the condition of Dr. F. H. Williams, who has been a patient in Mercy hospital for many weeks.

To See Big Game

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Marting of Franklin avenue will motor to Columbus Saturday to attend the State-Michigan game.

Court House

Injunction Suit

A friendly suit to test the legality of the action of City Council in vacating the east and west alleys, between Fifth and Sixth streets, from Chillicothe street west 121 feet, and to prevent the defendant from obstructing the alley with its proposed new building was instituted by The New Bedford-Silcox company in Common Pleas court Friday against The Marting Bros. company.

In its petition filed through Attorney B. F. Kimble, the plaintiff recites that the alley in question is and for approximately 90 years past has been in use by the public generally as a necessary and valuable public thoroughfare and for egress and ingress to the premises abutting thereon and after further reciting that it is the owner of a large brick building situated on the south side of the alley in which it does and has conducted for a long time past, a very large and extensive wholesale business, declares that the closing of the alley will destroy or greatly impair its facilities for conducting its business.

The plaintiff further claims the right to use the alley as a private way even should the proceeding in connection with the vacation of the alley be held legal and besides asking that the ordinance be declared of no effect seeks to forever enjoin the defendant from claiming title, enclosing, obstructing or destroying the alley or any part thereof.

Sent To Jail

For failing to send his children to school, George Spriggs of the Wheelersburg vicinity, was sentenced to jail for ten days by Judge Gilliland Friday but the court later suspended eight days of the sentence.

Spriggs was brought into court on a complaint filed by A. B. Fenton, county attendance officer, who told the court that the defendant failed to cause the attendance of his children in school despite frequent warnings.

Left Estate To Widow

The will of Perry Jones, Vernon township farmer, admitted to probate Friday, left his entire estate to his widow, Selma Jones now living in Wheelersburg. Mr. Jones died Sept. 26, 1922, at his home near Lyra. The widow was nominated as executrix under the will, which was executed March 14, 1921.

Squirrel Season Closes

The open season for hunting squirrels closed at midnight Friday and hunters will be forced to lay away their shooting irons until November 15, when the season for hunting rabbits opens. The open season for hunting rabbits runs six weeks, extending from Nov. 15 to Jan. 1, both inclusive.

Made Wards of the Court

Ernest Stone, 10 years old, and Pete Zorner, 12 years old, both New Boston youths, were found to be guilty of delinquency in connection with the theft of a bicycle from W. A. Adams, at a hearing in Juvenile court Friday and Judge Gilliland after finding the lads made them wards of the court.

Transcripts Filed

A transcript from the docket of Squire Foster of Washington township was filed in the office of the clerk of courts Friday in the case of W. A. Joman, as administrator of the estate of John Jman, against Glen Hinz. The plaintiff recovered a judgment in the lower court in the sum of $14 on a claim for insurance premiums alleged to be due the estate.

Osbert E. Irish, well known Iron-ton lawyer, is seeking to prevent the defendant company from erecting telephone poles on his farm lands in Green township through an injunction suit filed in Common Pleas court Friday against The Ohio Bell Telephone company.

In his petition filed through Attorney L. R. Andrews the plaintiff says his lands are improved farm lands, with fences and enclosures, fields and gardens, residence, farm buildings, together with fruit and ornamental trees, abutting and alongside of the Portsmouth and Iron-ton roadways and then complains that the defendant's servants have entered upon his premises, in his garden, orchard and about his residence building and dug holes preparatory to erecting poles, to his great injury, he claims.

A temporary restraining order was allowed to issue trying up the work until the case can be heard on its merits.

Holbrook Fined

Attorney Theo. K. Funk is home from Greenup where he defended McKinley Holbrook, former Greenup county young man, now living on Eighteenth street, this city, brought to trial in the Greenup court on an indictment charging shooting at with intent to kill.

Attorney Theo. K. Funk made a splendid plea for his client and after deliberating on the case a short time Thursday the jury brought in a verdict of guilty and fixed the penalty at $50 fine. Holbrook arranged to pay up and was released from custody. He is a steelworker, employed at the Whitaker-Glessner company.

Gist Will Filed

The last will and testament of Margaret E. Gist, deceased, was filed in Probate court yesterday. By the terms of the will, a daughter, Ethel Gist, receives the entire estate and is named executrix.

SOCIETY

The Misses Leona Browning and Ella Helman were joint hostesses of a delightful party given last evening at their home, 917 Third street. The decorations were in keeping with the Halloween season, fall flowers, yellow and black Halloween novelties being used in the various rooms where the guests were received. The evening was spent in dancing, games and music and at a late hour a delicious refreshment course of ice cream and cake were served. Those enjoying the hospitality so graciously extended by these two charming young hostesses were:

The Misses Bertha Hackett, Katherine Crawford, Mabel Daumer, Edna Moore, Alberta Dancy, Gertrude Lardier, Dorothy Lloyd, Fannie Womack, Anna Crabtree, Esther Deltz and Miriam Ray.

Measrs. Stanley Billian, William Polk, Ernest Crabtree, Arthur Polk, Harold Doerr, Howard Hargis, Clarence Powers, Joseph Biggs, Clifford Yeager and Clarence Fraley.

Miss Ethel Jane Steele, local High School teacher, left this afternoon for Circleville, where she will attend the Pumpkin Show. Tomorrow she will go on to Springfield, Ohio, to visit over the week-end with friends.

The home of Mr. and Mrs. George Gulker, Seventh and Lincoln streets, was the scene of a six o'clock dinner Wednesday evening when a surprise was given the men folks of the Tigretta Club. The Club entertained in the Gulker garage, which was beautifully decorated in keeping with the Halloween season. The affair was an old fashioned Halloween play social with the witch and broom playing an important part. Covers were laid for the following: Mr. and Mrs. George Gulker, Mr. and Mrs. Wells Elliott, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Flowers, Mr. and Mrs. William Culbertson, Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Grice, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Chick, Mr. and Mrs. George W. Hill, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Braisic, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Eichorn and Mr. and Mrs. Charles Keller. Mr. and Mrs. Keller were invited guests. The menu included scalloped oysters, potatoes, Boston baked beans, tomatoes, pickles, olives, light rolls, pumpkin pie and coffee.

The following is a list of shrubbery suitable for this climate suggested by Prof. J. B. Cruikshank of the Ohio State University at a recent meeting of the Woman's City Club:

For a good hardy foliage the Japanese Barberry is recommended. For forsythia, the Golden Bell is suggested, but this should never be put close to a red brick building. Spirea is hardy, and makes an attractive appearance. Several varieties of the honeysuckle may also be used for shrubbery. They attract birds and have a delicate foliage. Lilacs should be used around large buildings. Wreagle Privet, a summer hydrangea, and the cranberry attract birds. The Pink Weigela spreads rapidly and is a very dense grower. The Rose of Sharon makes an attractive shrubbery.

In planting shrubbery, a clump of one half dozen will give a better effect than a dozen scattered promiscuously. Foundations should never be entirely covered, as many imagine.

OBITUARY

Reports On Convention

The second monthly meeting of the Parent-Teacher Association was held at the Eleventh Street school Thursday at 3:20 p. m. Twenty-five parents and friends of education were present.

The report given by the president, Mrs. Standfield, of the annual state convention of the Parent-Teachers Association held in Columbus October 11, 12, 13 was enjoyed by all. Everyone was glad to know that the work of this association compared favorably with the work of the other associations of the state.

The address given by Prof. Curry was helpful and inspiring to both teachers and parents. He especially urged that the parents cooperate with the teachers in their efforts to train the young people. He also urged all the teachers to take an active part in the church work, and all uplifting movements of the community.

After this the business of the association was finished and the meeting adjourned to meet the third Thursday in November.

Of the 855 officers of the regular United States army retired for disability since the World War, only 51 suffered wounds in battle.

Company H Reunion Saturday

Members of gallant old Company H, who so nobly defended their flag in 1898, will hold their annual reunion at Camp Arion Saturday afternoon. Plans have been made for a real reunion at which every one present will no doubt grow reminiscent, especially after a splendid dinner with all the trimmings has been served.

The festivities will be held in R. S. Prichard's summer home at Arion.

HOME-MAKING HELPS

"Everything About the Home Helps to Make the Home"

By WANDA BARTON

Would You Like to Have a Bright, Cheery Kitchen?

To do our work well, we must live in cheerful surroundings. There is nothing more depressing to a woman than to work in a dreary, colorless kitchen. It has ceased to be a cause of wonderment that persons who work in monotonous surroundings get nervous prostration. The wonder is that they escape it as long as they do. It is not always a matter of expense that keeps the owner of the dull kitchen from freshening up. Often it happens that she does not value the realization of her dream until she has a job of some sort which causes her to see with new vision, then she is likely to get busy. We all know that there is nothing better than the realization of a dream to give a person the appearance of affluence. A prosperous-looking environment encourages greater effort to acquire more of the agreeable things of life. It is a happy omen for a greater degree of happiness, and everything that creates happiness is valuable to the human family.

The kitchen is the vital center of the home, and it serves as both kitchen and dining-room in many busy homes—the meeting-place, three times a day, for the family and its helpers. The farmer's wife is a busy woman, for there is much to be done and help is scarce, and she should be surrounded by all the best things that can be afforded and have a cheery place to work in. The up-to-date farmer has all the modern equipment he can get, magazines and papers keep the family posted on the general news, and their annual attendance at the county fair keeps them in touch with what others are doing in their line of endeavor, but it oftentimes takes some unusual event to force them to realize the importance of pleasant home surroundings. When this happens, the owner of the kitchen is very likely to get a lot of paint and brushes in the middle of the floor and get her men busy in off hours "fixing up."

An all-white kitchen is rather delicate for practical use, so we propose another combination. First, wash the kitchen walls and woodwork, then give the side walls two coats of non-colored paint and tint the ceiling a clear cream. Next, paint the woodwork a good mouse gray and cover when dry with a coat of waterproof varnish. This brings a sunlight effect to the walls and room, and the paint may be wiped down quickly with a damp cloth when soiled with finger-prints. Paint the floor the same gray and varnish it with waterproof varnish, or better still, put on a blue-and-white linoleum floor covering. Next, wash and scrape down the furniture and paint it gray to match the walls.

Stand still and look about your kitchen carefully, and see whether a pot of paint would not turn it into the cheeriest place on the farm. Achieve an atmosphere of prosperity by using paint—freely.

SOCIETY

The home of Mr. and Mrs. B. E. Wiggers on Scioto Trail was the scene of a merry gathering recently when they entertained with a delightful Halloween party in honor of the fourteenth birthday anniversary of their son, Bernard Wiggers.

The house was attractively decorated with yellow dahlias, autumn leaves, corn-fodder, pumpkins, black cats and yellow and black crepe paper. The evening was spent in music, games and guessing contests. Roy Arnold was given a box of candy for plucking the tail on the donkey, while Harry Teeters received the hooley prize. Mary Edna Wolfe received the prize in the guessing contest. At an appropriate hour the guests were invited into the dining room, where they were served with sandwiches, ice cream and cake. The table was centered with a large yellow pumpkin, and the yellow candles were hooded in black. The favors were small boxes of raisins decorated with black cats, and places were marked for Catherine Williams, Fay Rhoden, Bernice Loxier, Catherine Springer, Marguerite Noel, Anna Warden, Marion Gove, Marion Yeager, Virginia Yeager, Ella Rice, Stella Rice, Leona Butler, Hilda Weldar, Mary Edna Wolfe, Clarence Rose, Earl Marlow, Leroy Arnold, Harold Ray, Harry Peters, Herbert Schultz, Paul Cooper, Donald Long, Edward Jones, Pinner Clark, Lathar Shires, Donald Ruhlman, Lionel Bauer and Bernard Wiggers.

Mrs. Wiggers was assisted in entertaining and serving the guests by Mrs. James Long and Mrs. Nell Ward.

Mrs. E. W. Richards and son, Wayne Evans, of Fourth street, have returned from a three weeks' visit with Mr. and Mrs. Robert Richards and family of Niles, Ohio, and Mr. and Mrs. B. E. Aldridge of Warren, Ohio.

The Frances Butler Guild of All Saints' church will meet next Monday afternoon at the home of Mrs. John Neudorfer, 2003 Baird avenue.

Members of the Martha Washington Club were delightfully entertained yesterday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Roland P. Spangler, 222 Offshore street. Roses and daffodils made an attractive setting for the four tables arranged for cards, which provided diversion for the afternoon. At the close of the game prizes for high and low scores were awarded to Mrs. Eugene Crichton and Mrs. Ralph Swadner. Guest prizes were given to Mrs. Earl Cunningham and Mrs. Angus Adams. Later a delicious two course hot lunch was served at the small tables by Mrs. Ella Reeg.

Guests for the afternoon other than the club members included Mrs. Angus Adams, Mrs. Arthur Landeman, Mrs. Ralph Peel, Mrs. Rupert P. Spangler, Mrs. Earl Cunningham and Miss Katherine Welch.

Club members present were Mrs. Eugene Crichton, Mrs. Jack Hartlage, Mrs. Ralph Swadner, Mrs. Paul Stockham, Mrs. Houston Williams, Mrs. Earl Rheinfrank, Mrs. Richard Binfeld, Mrs. C. P. Wise and Mrs. Howard Doerr.

The next meeting will be with Mrs. C. P. Wise on Sixth street.

Mrs. Claire Gaffey and daughter, Mary Louise, who have been visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. O. Milledge of Seventeenth street, for several weeks, will leave tomorrow for their home in Memphis, Tenn.

The Misses Vere and Margaret Crawford have issued invitations to a tea at their home, on Hutchins street next Thursday afternoon, October 27th. They will also entertain with a bridge party on Friday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. T. H. Vaughters and son Homer and daughter Grace, and Mr. Ira Vaughters of Eighteenth and Waller streets left today for Florida, where they will spend the winter. They are making the trip via motor and expect to locate in Tampa.

Faces Trial for Slaying Two

Jury is being selected for the trial at Philadelphia of Mrs. Catherine Foster (above) charged with slaying her husband and his stepdaughter. The prosecutor fought to have Mrs. Foster's baby, shown in her arms, excluded from the courtroom on the ground it would unduly prejudice the jury.

Seek Aid Here For Road Betterment

G. W. Wilson, chairman of the Adams County Good Roads Federation, accompanied by several citizens of the Rome community, were in the city Thursday and while here called on T. J. Cox, manager of the Automobile Club relative to repairs being made on the Atlantic-Pacific Highway west of Buena Vista. This road has been in bad shape for months and the residents of that section of Adams county are anxious to see it placed in passable shape for this winter. They expressed hope that the business men of Portsmouth would get behind a movement to have the improvement made.

My Sword In Hand, Says Ex-Premier

LONDON, October 20.—(By the Associated Press)—"My sword is in my hand," was the key note of the farewell of Prime Minister Lloyd George to the great throng which gathered at St. Pancras station to give him an enthusiastic send-off as he left for Leeds today to deliver an address tomorrow.

"I thank you from the bottom of my heart for the reception here from this great assemblage to cheer me on my pilgrimage," he said.

"I am a free man. The burden is off my shoulders, but my sword is in my hand."

May Delay Murder Trials For Years

SEATTLE, WASH., October 20.—(By the Associated Press)—Captain Robert Rosenbluth and Sergeant Richard R. Pollier, under arrest in the east, accused of the murder of Major Alexander Conkrite, at Camp Lewis, Wash., in 1918, may by appeals on whether the federal courts have jurisdiction, delay trial for years, United States District Attorney Thomas P. Heerve said today.

Mr. Heerve, who was in charge of the grand jury that indicted Rosenbluth and Pollier at Tacoma, added that if the question of jurisdiction were not raised, the government would have the defendants removed to Tacoma at once.

Startling New Statues and the Sensations They Have Caused

Mrs. Clare Sheridan, the English Sculptor Who Has Reproduced in Statuary Her Impression of American Life. The Group in Question, with Which She Is Here Photographed, Is Called "Jazz." College Youths and Society Women Are Mrs. Sheridan's Models.

A FAT BOY with a sword over his shoulder has caused a bigger sensation in New York City than the Russo-German treaty, the Conan Doyle lectures or even the suspension of Babe Ruth. And he wasn't a real fat boy either. He was—and is—a statue named Civic Virtue.

From a place of vantage in City Hall Park this ample youth looks out calmly into the top story of the Old Postoffice quite unmindful of the bitter feelings he has caused and the incessant chatter that goes on about his feet.

He gained this place after being attacked from front, rear and both flanks. Women's clubs, art critics and politicians hurled imprecation, epithet and accusation at his placid brow. Finally he won out. At least, the group of officials who were to pass on his fitness to symbolize the New York idea of civic righteousness allowed him to be set up.

But that hasn't stopped the controversy. Every now and then somebody pauses at his feet and sneers. Others, of course, stop long enough to rhapsodize on his noble proportions. He is still an issue.

It started as long ago as August, 1914. Frederick MacMonnies, the celebrated sculptor, sent to the city authorities the plaster model he had made for the Augusta Crane Memorial Fountain for City Hall Park. Mrs. Crane left a bequest of $53,430 for this fountain and the city increased the amount to $60,000.

Mr. MacMonnies said at the time: "The subject I have chosen for the fountain is Civic Virtue, consisting of an allegorical group and a series of basins, the principal one supported by American mountain lions. The qualities of Civic Virtue—Justice, Order, Beauty and Peace—are to be suggested by a young man armed with a sword and represented as having caught the siren Vice in her own nets."

The Feminine Gallery Aroused

That all sounded fair enough. But turbulent things intervened between the submission of the model and the erection of the completed statue. Whether because American women have achieved a greater importance in their own eyes during the war or because they had never really had an opportunity to study Civic Virtue—an outcry of treble voices went up as soon as photographs of the statue were published.

Why, they indignantly asked, was it necessary to represent Virtue as a man and Vice as a woman? Why was this pudgy boy allowed to place a heavy foot on the writhing form of a girl? Why—if women were going to be dragged into the group were they not allowed to stand on an equal footing with this infant food baby?

For a while it looked as if the whole question of Women's Rights would be fought over again. Mayor Hylan, galvanized into action by the fusillade of protests, convened a committee of city officials and art experts and put Civic Virtue on trial.

The evidence adduced was varied and far-reaching and highly complex and contradictory. The women protesters, of course, were making their kick on political grounds. But once the question was opened, it straightway developed economic, social, moral and artistic factors.

Employers in the neighborhood of City Hall Park didn't like the statue because they were afraid it would prove too compelling a distraction to their feminine help. A representative of the American Posture League objected because the weight wasn't properly distributed. One of two artists of the modernist persuasion decided that the statue was too "obvious." A member of the Cavalier Society thought youth was too thickly proportioned to be a gentleman. Even Mayor Hylan felt there was something about "the fellow" that he didn't like.

Mr. MacMonnies was more than a little astonished at this furore. He pointed out that the creatures writhing at Civic Virtue's feet were symbolical—that they weren't women at all. He was a little reproachful at the ladies for thinking him ungallant.

"For a lifetime," he said, "I have adored womankind. I have spent my life at their feet. To intimate that I, MacMonnies, respecter and admirer of woman, have had a hand in symbolism degrading to womanhood is to talk damned nonsense."

For the reason, perhaps, that no unanimity of opinion regarding the statue could be reached, the Mayor's Committee allowed it to be erected. Many artists have since pronounced it a fine piece of work. Others are doubtful. But every day, as the crowds sweep past, the question is fought and refought.

During a lull in the Civic Virtue controversy Mrs. Clare Sheridan, the English sculptor who has been living in New York, completed a group in marble called "Jazz." This, of course, was not a public commission and therefore called for no official comment. But on account of its daring treatment, it served to focus public attention anew upon the woman who has been doing so many daring things since she first came to America.

In the opinion of herself and her friends, America has reached into Clare Sheridan and twisted her mind and heart into a different shape. When she first arrived in New York she looked at the phalanx of skyscrapers and said:

"Re-ahly! How extraved-nry!"

When she sailed recently for a vacation trip to England, Germany and Russia she spoke as follows:

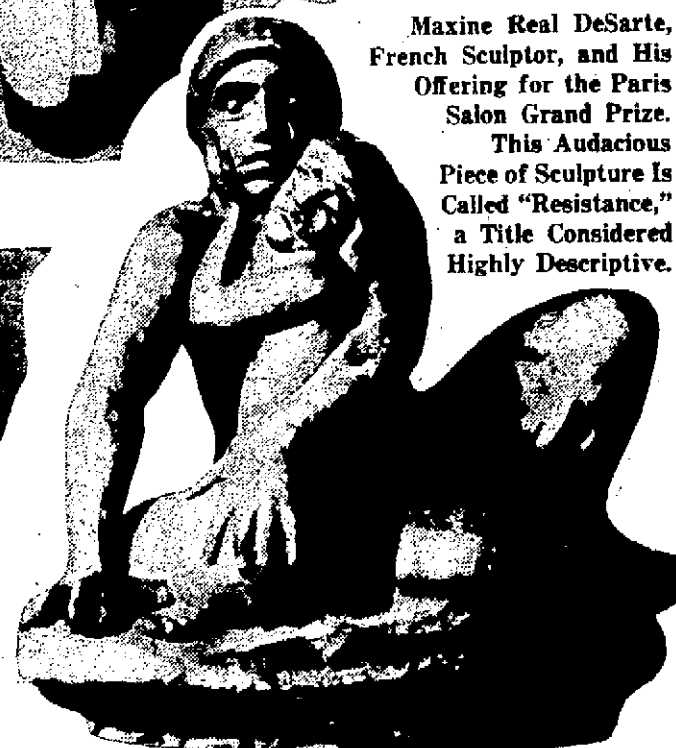

"My God, I'm tired! Jazzed all night."

The distance between these two observations is considered a fair measurement of what hapart are considered freer from illiberal restrictions than the people of any other nation, have shown that they can still be shocked.

The shocker in question is Maxine Real DeSarte's new piece of sculpture entitled "Resistance." This artist won last year's grand prize and this statue is what he is offering this year. The group is made up of a woman in the embrace of a man she is evidently fighting off. The treatment is considered "audacious but lovely." One or two critics have said, however, that the same artistic appeal might have been made without a descent to frank sensuality. The statue is now on exhibit in the Paris Salon.

A recent exhibition in London of the works of the Polish sculptor Glicenstein startled the art world of the British capital solely on account of its bold treatment. The subjects were all conventional. One of these, "Fear," is said to be the best thing ever done in bronze by a modern. This statue, a reproduction of which is shown on this page, depicts the awful, soul-sickening fear of a mother for a threatened child.

pened to Clare Sheridan in America. And the statue "Jazz" is a concrete symbol of what America has meant to her.

The group is composed of two nude dancers in a typical fox-trotting posture. If the statue is a shock to sensitive minds, the fault is not hers, says Mrs. Sheridan, but America's.

She insists further that the two figures not only show America at its principal amusement, but are typical of the American physique. She calls the woman in the group "The Fawn Woman," and says that she is typical of the new type of girl athlete who has become so prominent in these states.

Mystery of the Models

An interesting fact about the statue is that the man in the group was posed by a college student. Since Mrs. Sheridan let it be known that she didn't employ professional models, but used society women who offered to pose for her, speculation as to the identity of the models used in "Jazz" has kept the statue pretty well in the limelight.

The same aura of mystery surrounds the identity of the four models who posed for "The Dance of the Bacchante," the new fountain at "El Gran Casino de la Playa" in Havana, Cuba. The artistic interest aroused by this work—but this interest was pale and academic beside the curiosity which was provoked by the announcement that the four models were American girls of prominent families.

The Cuban sculptor refused to give out the information. Since that time everybody who looks at a photograph of the statue has tried to recognize an acquaintance.

But statuary sensations haven't been confined to America. Citizens of France, whose ideas on

IF BUCKEYES ARE NOT READY FOR STRONG MICHIGAN TEAM SATURDAY, THEY NEVER WILL BE

Rooters Begin To Swarm To Capital City

COLUMBUS, O., Oct. 20.—(By the A. P.) If the Buckeyes aren't ready for Michigan now, they never will be. This was the consensus of opinion of football followers as they awaited almost breathlessly for the opening of the Ohio State-Michigan game, a event 24 hours away.

For, excepting for light lumbering up exercise this afternoon, Coach Wiley's men completed their preparations for what is regarded as the greatest athletic event in the annals of Ohio with a light scrimmage late yesterday. Today their workout was at a place yet unnamed and he held at the place until 10 o'clock, when he hustled off to spend the night in seclusion at the Scioto country club far beyond earshot of the din and excitement aroused by exuberant Ohio State partisans and incoming delegations of Michiganians. There was only one dark spot on the Buckeye horizon. Completion of the hazardous part of the week's training yesterday, found all the players counted upon to open the battle against the Wolverines uninjured.

But hopes that "Tex" Young might appear in his regular position at left tackle when it was announced that he had been unable to remove scholastic conditions in time to participate. In his absence, Hawley, the husky center will be shifted to a tackle and Alex Klein, a member of last year's yearling team, will assume the keystone position. The change left Captain Pixley at left guard the only veteran in the Buckeye line.

Shortly after their arrival this morning Coach Yost was expected to take his Michigan team out for a brief practice session then return them to their quarters at the Columbus athletic club.

With the vanguard of the Michigan delegation of almost 10,000 already here, excitement was expected to reach its height tonight when both Ohio State and Michigan rooters gather in separate meetings to give vent to their enthusiasm. Buckeye supporters were to hold a "fog raiser" at the state fair grounds coliseum while the Deshler hotel was the scene of the tuning up exercises of maize and blue rooters.

During the day downtown business houses and the entire university district began to give indication that the city was ready to celebrate the dedication of its new million dollar stadium. Festoons of scarlet and blue, the Michigan colors, were being draped from store fronts and other buildings and clubs and fraternities on the north side vied with each other in originality of decorations.

The battle for tickets, staged by those whose last minute requests for reservations were fruitless today. Reports of fancy prices asked and received were frequent, but demand apparently was more than equaling the supply and many of the disappointed ones were preparing to fall in line and make the best of the situation by accepting standing room as the only thing obtainable. Instead of opening at 10:30 a. m. as previously announced gates to the stadium will be thrown back at 11:45. It was announced today.

Staten Back In Game

DELAWARE, Oct. 20.—Ohio Wesleyan's eleven will have its full offensive backfield strength available for the first time this season when Coach Gauthier's team meets the University of Cincinnati at Cincinnati Saturday. George Staten, who has been in condition to play but a few minutes in Wesleyan's first three games will be able to go the full route against the Bearcats and Fullback Essex who failed to get into condition for the Ohio Northern game as expected will be available against Cincinnati also.

Staten, Winters and Essex are the trio on whom Coach Gauthier expected to depend for his attack at the beginning of the season.

Staten, who resides in this city, has been out of the game nursing several broken ribs.

Hum! Kiwanians Don Baseball Togs; Rout Disappointed Exchangeites

Battered and bruised, manhandled and mauled, routed and razed, the Exchange Club team limped and lumbered off the Rosemont diamond, Thursday evening, enlightened by the fact that they had run up against a rip saw in their encounter with the Kiwanian ball club. Where the Exchange players thought they could hold their older opponents in the hollow of their hands, they were looking at bruised fins, and headless illusions, for the Kiwanians simply won as they pleased as the score of 12 to 2 will perhaps more forcibly impress. The K's had, perhaps older point of habitation on this mundane sphere, had not forgotten the lessons of their younger days, and they played ring around the roses with their opponents whom they slew and buried with scant ceremony.

The Kiwanians started out and made three runs in the very first inning, hammering the offerings of Fred Lorey to the ball and cut. With "Chuck" Samson on the receiving line the Exchange laid, thought they had battery of Bushes and Schangs, but while it must be said that Pitcher Lorey did not receive all right support, his offerings were sloughed with considerable freedom and the Kiwanians had no trouble whatsoever in piling up a dozen scores. On the other hand Professor Appel was all to the merry in the box for the Kiwanians. He had smoke, hooks and best of all control and had it been at all necessary the Exchange club could have been held to a lone run. The shoots of the professor were handled by Ed. V. Leach in regular big league style and the work of the K's infield was high class. "Frosty" Williams may be a good football referee—he is—but isn't saying he is a good third baseman, and it isn't saying he can't stop 'em, but Lorey, can he throw 'em? Ex-president Frank Colburn essayed the task of playing second base for the Exchange boys. The next time the eminent dentist plays the key-stone sock he is going to wear shin guards and a chest protector. His hands seemed to be in the way—he was using the other part of his versatility he would stop 'em with the previous part of his rotund body. So much for "Doc."

Real Selby got on the base paths once—thanks to the bravery he exhibited when he stepped in front of one of Prof. Appel's twisters. He knew that was the only chance he had and he took it, brave fellow that he is.

Ed. Leach was the hitting demon of the fray. He poked out two three baggers, a home run and two singles in five times at bat. No, take that back. He had his second three bagger party made, when the aforesaid Selby, stuck up his ponderous mitt and by gorry, the ball lodged therein. It was a whale of a catch. "Dusty" Miller and "Eph" Ricker did most of the coaching from the sidelines and their cheers and advice spurred the Kiwanians to do their darndest. Si Straus, President Dillon, Bill Schwartz, Ed. Ricker, Bill Briggs, et al. joined in the rooting and applauded the phenomenal work of the Kiwanians, who expect to hurl a challenge at the Reds next spring. It will make a nice winter dream, anyway.

At the conclusion of the ball game, the Kiwanian horse shoe pitchers easily disposed of the crack Exchangeites, winning three straight games. Ed. Appel and Walt Rierley represented the Kiwanians while Real Selby and Dr. Colburn played under and colors of the Exchange club. And then the big "shore" dinner followed—then stories, three cheers and goodnight.

Score by innings:

Kiwanians	12	212	2-12
Exchange	2	100	1-2

Batteries: Kiwanians, Appel, Leach and Ricker; Exchangeites, Lorey and Samson.

Umpire: Bridwell.

P. S.—The Kiwanians have accepted the volley ball challenge of the Exchange club and a series of three games will be played shortly—more honors for the Kiwanians if the Exchange boys can't play better volley ball than they can baseball. If the Exchange boys lose they are going to make the Kiwanians play a game of football or riddle-de-winks. Alright.

P. H. S. Gridders Will See State-Michigan Game

Twenty-five of the Portsmouth high school football candidates accompanied by Prof. H. H. Eccles and Athletic Director P. B. McCoub will enjoy the Ohio State-Michigan game at Columbus Saturday. Tickets for the local party arrived today.

Several of the students will use their own machines but there are not enough to carry the 25 to Columbus and back. The students wish to leave Saturday morning and return Saturday night. Local autoists making this trip and who will have room for one or two students are urged to call Prof. Eccles or Coach McCoub at the high school.

Young Ineligible; Klein Goes To Center

COLUMBUS, O., October 20.—Ohio State's chances for a victory against Michigan in Saturday's football game here were regarded as having been given a serious setback today when it was announced that "Tex" Young, left tackle, would not have settled his scholastic difficulties in time to participate. This was taken to mean that Pauler who has been playing center, would be shifted to tackle and Alex Klein, a sophomore, used at center.

The Smokehouse Juniors went through a stiff practice session last night in preparation for the game with the Ironton Panthers Sunday afternoon.

The Portsmouth team is confident, and supporters of the aggregation are prophesying a victory for the Juniors over the Ironton crowd.

ADAMS WILL PLAY SUNDAY

Dewey Adams, fullback on the Smoke House team, who was recently injured in the game with Washington C. H., had his left arm examined yesterday afternoon by Dr. A. R. Moore and it was found the member had not been broken, as had been thought. It has been giving the plucky grid warrior much pain. Dewey will be able to get in the game with Huntington next Sunday when the Scarlet and Gray aggregation journeys to that place.

MICHIGAN ENDS IN FINE TRIM

ANN ARBOR, Mich., Oct. 20.—Captain Goebel and Dornie Kirk will protect the ends and are in perfect condition to meet the Buckeyes. They should have a busy afternoon Saturday breaking up the large number of end runs and forward passes the Wilcemen are slated to uncover during the contest.

With Uteritz at quarterback, Kipke and Roby at halves and Cappon at fullback, Yost will present one of the strongest back field positions that has ever worked under the Malze and blue.

Praying For Good Weather Saturday

COLUMBUS, Oct. 20.—Even the weatherman is being importuned by Ohio State athletic authorities to assure him of a good day for the Ohio State-Michigan game next Saturday. Of course he can promise nothing as yet as to overhead conditions at the weekend, but he has a record in show that Oct. 21 is a day of unusual good behavior. For a period of 45 years this day has been one without rain, save once. Will Saturday be the second time in 46 years that it has rained in Columbus on that date? No! No!! No!!!

To Play Eagles

CHILLICOTHE, Oct. 20.—Local gridiron fans will see a battle royal Sunday at Meador park, when the Chillicothe Smokehouse club will play the first with the Eagles of Columbus, formerly the Beaver Humps. It will be recalled that the Beaver Humps was the only team last year to score on the local independent team which was constituted of practically the same players as this year's Smokehouse team.

Steel Plant Has Volley Ball League

Unable to get teams in the Portsmouth, or River City Volley ball leagues has caused volley ball players at the steel plant to form a league of their own. This league will consist of six teams, four from the Steel plant and two from the outside, these two teams to be headed by George Koerner and Pearl Selby. The Steel plant teams will be captained by Otha Lewis, Perry Wohler, Oscar McChure and William Hopkins. Wilhelmette hall has been secured for the games to be played each evening at 6:15 and on Saturday afternoons. The season will open next Monday evening.

An organization has been formed with Richard Pratt as president, Perry Wohler, treasurer and Ralph Teel, secretary. The teams will be named in a few days.

Real Football On Saturday's Card

BY HENRY L. FARRELL
(United Press Sports Editor)

NEW YORK, Oct. 20.—(United Press)—First real football bangs of the season starts tomorrow with an attractive program.

Features of the schedule are the games between Harvard and Centre College at Cambridge and Georgia Tech and the Naval Academy at Annapolis.

Centre beat Harvard last year and the Colonels will give the Crimson a fight simply because they reach them to fight at Centre. The Colonels, however, haven't the chance to win they had last year.

Georgia Tech probably will have an interesting time with the midshipmen. The southerners are strong for the style of depending on a strong attack for the defense. While the midshipmen are always well schooled on the defense.

Featured in the midwest will be the game between Ohio State, former champions of the western conference, and Michigan.

In addition to its effects on the conference championship race it will be a big game because it will be the official opener for the new million-dollar Ohio stadium.

Other interesting games in the conference will be between Iowa and Illinois, Indiana and Wisconsin and Minnesota and Northwestern.

Pancho Villa, the new American flyweight champion, had a tough time getting any kind of a chance in the ring.

He was unknown and the matchmakers for all the clubs didn't think much of the fighting ability of any yellow man.

Dave Driscoll, matchmaker for the Brooklyn ball club, finally put him on.

"His manager kept bothering the life out of me and I decided finally the best way to get rid of him was to get his boy knocked out," Driscoll said.

"I put him on in a four round bout and he made a whale of a showing. Then I gave him a six-rounder and he became a real hit. He was good enough for twelve rounds, then he became a card. The next thing he had the American title and as soon as I take the fight with Jimmy Wilde, he'll be the world's champion."

For several years the International League club owners have been yearning for the breaking up of the Baltimore club, said to be a major league team in a minor league.

Baltimore sort of denied the allegations, by going out and losing a series with the New Haven club, winners of the Eastern League, for the minor league championship of the east.

Later the Orioles turned around and won the "little world's series" from the St. Paul club, champions of the American Association.

Which gives New Haven some sort of a title.

A. A. Attendance Records Broken

CHICAGO, Oct. 20.—All attendance records for the American Association were shattered during the 1922 season when the eight clubs played to an attendance of 1,529,378. President Hickey announced today. The previous high mark was last year when the attendance reached 1,522,222.

The Kansas City club, which finished third in the pennant race, a half game behind Minneapolis, drew the largest attendance with 316,000. This also is a record for an individual club and the first time that any team in the organization drew above 300,000 in a season.

Siki Shows White Feather

NEW YORK, October 20.—(By the Associated Press)—The fight for the world's light heavyweight title between Battling Siki and Kid Norfolk, which was to have taken place here on November 30, is off. Tex Rickard announced today after receiving a cable message from Maurice Hellers, Siki's manager. The Madison Square Garden promoter, was informed that Siki would be unable to fulfill the agreement, having decided to meet Joe Beckett, heavyweight champion of Europe, in London on December 7.

Rickard declared that Siki had "run out of his contract," and if he wished, he said, he could carry the legal fight abroad.

Ohio-Bred Captain Will Open New State Stadium

The Ohio State eleven this year is captained by T. A. "Butch" Pixley, a native of Columbus.

Pixley is a product of Columbus East High School, which produced such other famous Ohio State stars of recent years as "Chick" Harley, "Hap" and "Red" Courtney and Bob Karch.

Pixley is a sure enough heavy-weight, tipping the scales at 240 pounds. Despite his weight he is very fast and a deadly tackler.

At the end of the present football season Pixley will have the unique honor of having won four varsity football letters. A feat made possible in these days of three-year limitation rules by the fact that Pixley won a letter as a freshman in 1918 when conference rules were waived for the period of the war.

KEEP UP THE WORK

Scioto county was one of the first five in the state to start upon a system of permanent road building.

She enjoys today the distinction, and the satisfaction as well of having more good highways than any other county in Southern Ohio.

So she has gone far, but she must go further. She must build more good roads. She can not do this to any worthy extent unless she votes to continue the special 2 mill levy that she has paid for the past nine years, as otherwise that levy will run out next year.

The argument may be advanced against this position that as everything is so high it would be wise to reduce the present scale of highway construction.

That is not sound reason, either in fact or in economy. Material and labor are not going to get cheaper. They are going to go higher. There has just got to be a revival of trade and industry. Indeed that revival is already going around the corner. Bigger prices are coming along with it.

Then there is this other thing. Scioto county can now get state aid for permanent road building. She can also get federal aid and is getting it. The more she builds the more aid she gets. Soon there will be a wider distribution of state aid because all the counties are clamoring for it and adopting more ambitious programs, calling for a larger portion of state aid. Not all are getting federal aid. Scioto county is simply fortunate in being one that does.

The less she constructs the less aid she gets from the state and besides renders herself likely to entire loss of federal help.

As the last word good roads grow more of an essential every day. Every new automobile and truck is an increasing demand for them. It is to be doubted if any county in the state is buying automobiles and trucks as fast as is Scioto, that is in proportion to population. Within this very year the sight of a vehicle drawn by horses, that used to be so common, has become a rarity. Go anywhere you please in the county you'll dispute the road not with a wagon, but with another machine.

The cost of gasoline alone will pay the cost of transforming the average bad road into a good road.

SEE THE POINT OF IT

UP at Kalamazoo there is an unknown fellow, who writes a house letter, every week or so for his firm, that emits more wisdom than all the tomes of the sages and philosophers of old. And he tinctures it with such wit and quaint humor as to make the reading a thousandfold more enticing. Just listen at this:

"John Smith's father would be termed today an old fogey. Apprenticed to a carpenter at the age of fifteen, he found himself at the age of twenty-two the possessor of one good average wife and an earning capacity of $3.00 a day.

"John's father and mother were frugal in everything except children. A family of nine youngsters forty years ago, however, did not compel the Associated Press to work overtime and so it happened that father and mother Smith raised seven out of their brood of nine, fed them with plain but nourishing food, clothed them respectably, educated them to the extent that they could assimilate it, bought and paid for a home and had a few thousand laid away against the rainy day.

"John, when he arrived at the cigarette and pool playing age, always referred to his father as the 'old man' and while he did not intend to be disrespectful, he nevertheless felt that like all fathers who were addicted to the 'pay as you go' plan, he was decidedly a back number.

"John got through the 8th grade in fairly good shape, but when he tackled the high school he found so many things not to his liking, especially the study part of it, that he finally decided he would 'accept a position' provided he could find some banker or manufacturer who had sense enough to appreciate his ability and pay accordingly. After interviewing several of these gentlemen, he found them however to be greatly lacking in sense, hence he finally and just temporarily, as he expressed it, annexed a job hustling freight down at the station.

"When John arrived at the age of 24, he was drawing $125 a month—a part of which he earned—and being now in affluent circumstances he took unto himself a flapper and a flivver.

"When the paint and varnish commenced to wear off on his two F's, he found that the up-keep on his luxuries, which he of course deemed necessities, far exceeded what he termed his 'measly wage,' hence, and therefore, the only thing left for him to do was to get his co-workers dissatisfied and then the whole bunch go out on a strike for more money and while they were about it also, for shorter hours.

"John and his wife are staying up at the 'old man's' now, but his wife says the food is something awful."

New York-Day-By-Day

BY O. O. MAINTYRE

NEW YORK, October 20.—Thoughts while strolling around New York: Longacre Square's parade of brunettes and blondes. Topped heads. Poke bonnets. And baby staves. Brilling epigrams such as "Let's get giddy!" The California orange drink stands dying off. Wonder who thought of calling the San Francisco earthquake a fire.

Sports. Braggards. And profiteers. Whatever became of Thomas Mott Osborne? Soft shoe dancers earnestly discussing their art. I must be growing old. Youth annoys me. But I still like animal crackers. Dairy lunches with deep cushioned leather chairs. And night lunch wagons have gone the way of the old cab horse.

Sedentary clerks thrilling to the athletic demonstrator in a window. Newspapers heralding gland operations. The next generation will call grandpa—grandpa. What a hum wheeze that turned out to be. But I've got to fill up with something.

New melodramas crammed with humor. At that it's better than the filth of the bedroom farce. There goes handsome Lou Tellegen. Dead turtles on blocks of ice. Supposed to whet the appetite. Clubmen in dinner clothes. All steamed up for a frolic and no place to go.

Forty-Sixth Street. Walkway apartments with kitchenettes. Hot cleanlux parlors. Dog shops. And hair dressing dens where gin is made while you wait. A black-voiced doorman speaking from a soap box. There is something heroic to me about tailors sitting cross-legged and toiling patiently by dim gas light. In the Forties they work all night.

The rush homeward from the theatres. Acres of motors. Bedlam in every block. Leading men sauntering out to face the line of stage-door gapers. A gold-star mother selling chewing gum. Late extras. The whine of jazz and the overtone of cosmetics. And now for the slippers and pipe.

Near the Palace Theatre in one of the thickest sculpting butches there appeared a new kind of business to welcome Broadway trade the other day. The sign reads: "Fusel Oil Extractor—Agas Liquids five years in one minute." The instrument was being demonstrated by a typical type of circus ballyhoo and when I was there he was doing a land-office business.

Down at the foot of Wall street is the coffee market. It is a lively spot where one sees numerous Brazilians bartering with American importers. They drink their own wares, too. There are any number of coffee shops in the neighborhood. One dealer told me he drank as many as nine cups of coffee every day for lunch. The foot of Wall Street some 200 years ago was one of the principal slave markets in the New World, where ships bearing the pious names as the Good Prophet and The Guardian Angel unloaded their human cargoes.

Many fascinating moments can be spent strolling through Maiden Lane, the downtown district for jewelers. The windows are rich with precious gems. Hundreds of private detectives patrol the district beside the extra squad of regular police. If one loiters in front of a window for any great length of time he suddenly finds a husky figure on each side, apparently taking no interest. In reality they are slinks. The district is honeycombed with alarms that arouse the street and flash the news to all police stations, in case of a hold-up. Maiden Lane, in the past few years, has had very few big robberies. It is below Fulton street, the dead line for crooks, and those who have braved the danger of crossing to pull off a job invariably have been caught.

Sonnet To A Plain Gold Band

Inanimate you lie there in my hand
Time and toll has worn somewhat
your sheen,
And well I know the love and care
you've seen;
And of we three but you and I yet
stand

And where is she, my angel wife I mean.
Whose dainty fingers once you
graced and spanned;
When you were new and life and love
were green.

I placed you on her finger soft and tanned,
The fairest maid to me in all the

I hear again the words of dear old

But stay, what does that heart-

You cast upon my palm, does such

A message bold for you and I? 'Tis

Excuse my tears, for oh, I miss my

It May Be Comedy For Some Folks, But It's Tragedy For Me — By Briggs

Determined to Obey Orders

The foreman had impressed upon Mike that he must be sure to carry fifteen bricks at a time in his hod up to Pat, who was building the wall. So when, on finishing up the pile, Mike found that he had only fourteen bricks, he yelled up: "Hey, Pat! I throw me down a brick; I'm one shy."

Good News For Creditors

The following story appeared in a recent bulletin of the Rochester Credit Men's Association:

"The doctor coughed gravely. 'I am sorry to tell you,' he said, looking down at the man in the bed, 'that there is no doubt you are suffering from smallpox.'"

"The patient turned on his pillow and looked up at his wife.

"Julia," he said in a faint voice, 'if any of my creditors call, tell them that at last I am in a position to give them something.'"

Wise Jottings

A man may walk right up without walking upright.

A woman seldom dresses to please her husband—unless she pays the bills.

Stop worrying about the sorrows of yesterday and go after the joys of today.

When you talk louder than the other fellow it's a sign you're wrong and he's right.

Poetry of love is transformed into prose when matrimony reaches the paragonic stage.

"My boy Tommy asked me today if the Statue of Liberty was beyond the three-mile limit."

Misunderstanding

Mr. Common Citizen stumped into the butcher shop with a do-or-die look on his face.

"A pound of steak," he ordered. The steak, mostly bone, was thrown on the scales.

"Look here," remonstrated Mr. Common Citizen in as firm and determined voice as he could command, "you're giving me a big piece of bone."

"Oh, no I ain't," returned the butcher blandly, "yer payin' fer it."

IF YOU ARE WELL DRESSED

You do not try to impress people with your sophistication or your wide acquaintance by constantly mentioning celebrities and referring to them by their first names or nicknames.

Such ostentation always indicates the social climber rather than the socially established person. Really well-dressed persons keep the personal element out of general conversations.

EXIT

The Democrats are so shiftless. They didn't even get one good, full campaign out of the late war, while the Republicans have been capitalizing the rebellion for fifty years. Henry Ford hasn't only made millions, but think of the great fortunes that have been piled up by the makers of Ford adjuncts such as shock absorbers, starters and hoodlump caps.
